Insurance Smart Jeff O'Donnell,1991-02-14 Intended for prospective insurance buyers. Written by an experienced insurance agent, it will help the average consumer gain control over what insurance can and cannot do for him/her. Shows you how to deal with all those complex, frustrating and usually overwhelming coverage plans, premiums and claims for auto, home, business, farm, health and life insurance. The easy-to-follow format and the many anecdotes and examples from real-life situations further enhance its usefulness it will serve not only as a text/reference for insurance customers, but also as a unique training tool for new agents. Above all, it will help people who are interested in making sound decisions about buying insurance or want to know more about the insurance they own. After all, insurance is a product that makes up a major part of most people's annual budget.
