Law of Attraction Media A F,2019-07-04 This is a weekly planner for manifesting your goals and intentions. It has two parts: the planner side, which is meant to help you organize your week while always keeping your intentions at the top of your mind. At the beginning of each week, review your intentions and make some notes about affirmations you're going to use. Incorporate these into your visualization or meditation about the goal you're working on. This will help you to keep your mind focused on what you WANT, rather than getting caught up and reacting to what is going on in your current reality. Make notes during the week in the Notes section about what is working and not working. The vision board side of the planner is more of a free-form space, where will put sketches, photos, notes, inspirations you tear out of magazines, or whatever visual stimulus that keeps your mind focused on the reality you are in the process of manifesting.

To create a vision board, gather images and words that represent your intentions, and arrange them on a board or piece of paper. Place your vision board somewhere you will see it every day, and take a few moments each morning to look at it and reflect on your intentions for the day. In addition to creating a vision board, it can be helpful to journal about your daily intentions and reflect on your progress. Consider setting aside time each day to write about your intentions, how you plan to achieve them, and any obstacles or challenges you encounter along the way.
