Raegan Butcher

Invasion of the Chupacabras Raegan Butcher,2017-10-20 Who will stop the invasion? Recently disavowed British secret agent H.G. Statham is on the run with no one but a stoned American bush pilot and a nervous Mexican disc jockey to rely upon for help. Dodging international assassins from every spy agency known to man, the trio of unlikely heroes must solve the mystery of why genetically created monsters are attacking top secret scientific research facilities across three different countries. The fate of the entire world hangs in the balance. Can this rag-tag group of desperate misfits stop the Invasion of the Chupacabras? This one is like James Bond VS Chupacabras. Like Moonraker crossed with Aliens. PRAISE FOR FURY OF THE CHUPACABRAS The character interactions are engaging and often hilarious, the body count is insanely high, there is an intentionally gratuitous gore factor that fits the story wonderfully, and Butcher's authorial voice is a perfect fit for the havoc-laden narrative... a riotously tumultuous celebration of blood, destruction, and savage monster action. - Shane Douglas Keene, shotgunlogic.com PRAISE FOR REVOLT OF THE CHUPACABRAS Another great installment in an awesome series. With Revolt of the Chupacabras, Raegan Butcher has established himself as a cryptid horror master and the ruler of all things chupacabra. With an insane battle royale in a drug lord's bizarre Roman coliseum, Revolt is full of non-stop action and jaw dropping revelations that will satisfy all of your monster and cryptid cravings. A must read - Hunter Shea, author of The Montauk Monster PRAISE FOR RISE OF THE CHUPACABRAS Raegan Butcher has taken Chupacabra tales to a whole new level with some of the wittiest, sharpest prose in the biz. If you haven't read the Chupacabra series yet, get on it - Hunter Shea, author of The Montauk Monster

Revolt of the Chupacabras Raegan Butcher,2016-09-07 Condemned to the Beasts! When their plane crashes in the remote jungles of southern Mexico, Joe Gifford and his gang of professional chupacabra hunters are held prisoner by Gustavo Ramirez, an insane Mexican drug lord with an unnatural fascination for Ancient Rome. On the grounds of his lavish hacienda, he forces our heroes to engage in gladiatorial combat. The losers die by the sword in the arena. The winners are spared to fight an even more dangerous foe: captured chupacabras! Can Joe and his crew escape from the clutches of this evil madman before it is too late? Packed with colorful characters, subversive wit, and wall to wall action, Revolt of the Chupacabras, the latest installment of Raegan Butcher's massively entertaining Chupacabra Chronicles series, is sure to please his die-hard fans as well as win over new adherents. PRAISE FOR FURY OF THE CHUPACABRAS Fury of the Chupacabras really works. It's a ridiculously fun, sometimes unabashedly cheesy story that reads like a Sunday afternoon B horror flick with a high entertainment factor... But there is one major strength to Fury of the Chupacabras, a feature that stands out above all others and really drives this story, and that's an almost perfect mastery of pacing. The book moves along at wild, almost chaotic speeds, hurling you into battle after battle with the blood-thirsty, eyeball sucking monsters, keeping you on the edge of your seat until the graphically brutal, ultimately satisfying conclusion. - Shane Douglas Keene, shotgunlogic.com
