Country Grandma City Grandma Lucille Tannis, Sherren McKenzie, 2013-09-09 This book is non-Fiction. It relates to children 3 year old and up. It is about Carisse's personal experiences when she visits her grandmas' houses. Most children love visiting their grandparents whether they live a block away, within driving distance or flying distance. I think Carisse's story will open up a dialogue for children to talk about their own experiences with grandma and also talk about their favorite foods and games. There will be a follow up for suggested activities. Discussions: Where does your grandparent live? Do you walk, drive or fly to your grandparent's house? (Older children can use a map to find the city and state.) What do you see when you travel to her house? What do you do when you get there? Does she have gardens? Do you help with the gardens? Does she have pets? What are their names? What is your favorite food? Activities: Draw.... One thing you see on your way to grandma's house, A picture of her house. A picture of her garden. Your favorite flower. Your favorite vegetable. One of her pets. Your favorite food.

Grandma's Helper Helena Hayes Thomas, 2011-11 I was inspired by my grandson, Michael Thomas, Jr., to write Grandma's Helper. I didn't realize that over the years I had forgotten so much. As I spent treasured moments caring for my grandchild, I would jot down little reminders as to what to do next in the course of the day of grandparenting. Then it occurred to me to compile the notes into a book to help other grandmas, grandpas, moms, and dads. Introducing a child to the world around him provides opportunity to bring out the physical as well as the spiritual side of his development. Early training and guidance of small children provide valuable lessons for grandparents. The main ingredients that we must possess are tender loving care and a reverence for God and His Word as we train our children in the way they should go. It is the purpose of this book to teach the fulfillment of that commission.
