ACM SIGCHI Curricula for Human-computer Interaction Association for Computing Machinery,1992 In August 1988, the SIGCHI Executive Committee authorized a multi-year project to develop a set of curriculum recommendations for education in Human-Computer Interaction. This report represents that work. The Curriculum Development Group has attempted to create an heuristic structure with which, and within which, other can work to improve the state of education in human-computer interaction. The example course descriptions represent a set of possible content/course structures that educators can use as a starting point, and further iterations are expected and welcomed.

100 Words To Make You Sound Smart American Heritage Dictionaries,2006-10-04 Find the right words to make a point, seal the deal, or just keep folks listening! Chosen by the editors of the American Heritage Dictionaries, these words can help anyone who wants to be a more compelling communicator—as a worker, consumer, advocate, friend, dinner companion, or even romantic prospect. The book includes a colorful variety of words, including handy words of just one syllable (such as glib) and words derived from the names of famous people (such as Freudian slip and Machiavellian). There are expressions from popular culture (Catch-22) and words that date back to classical civilization (spartan and stoic). Each word is clearly defined and shown in context with quotations from magazines, newspapers, broadcast media, movies, and television. For many words, quotations from distinguished authors and speakers are also given and word histories are explained. 100 Words to Make You Sound Smart provides an enjoyable way to communicate more effectively, distinctively, and articulately.

Truck and Coach Technician Ontario. Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities,2011 The Truck and Coach curriculum (T&C) level 3 has been developed in keeping with the prescribed Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities (MTCU) Training Standards, which apply to the Truck and Coach Technician apprenticeship. The curriculum layout used provides an opportunity to cross-reference the in-school learning outcomes and content to the specific workplace Training Standards. For easy reference, a time allocation has been included for each reportable subject along with the Theory/Practical breakdown for the delivery of the Learning Content. More detailed time allocations for the instructor have been provided for each topic area to ensure consistency for each appropriate intake. The reportable subjects are Trade Practices and Auxillary Systems; Engine Systems; Electricity and Electronics; Fuel Systems; Vehicle Electronic Management and Emission Systems; Drive Trains; and Steering, Suspension and Break Systems.--Includes text from document.

Surviving the Stress of Family Law Conflict: Tips and Tactics Adam Clarke,2019-06-04 Divorce is a difficult time for most people, with mixed emotions, feelings of stress, loss, worry, grief, and financial insecurity. If you add legal action to this process, you may feel completely overwhelmed, which can lead to poor decision making and ongoing distress over the outcome. This book is designed to assist you in coping with the stress of divorce and the legal process, by equipping you with various tools and strategies to help reduce the negative impact of this time. Together, we'll explore techniques for managing and coping with stress and the emotions that arise out of divorce and family law conflict. By managing your stress and emotional state, you will increase your ability to make sound decisions, maintain a quality of life throughout this time, and enjoy the time you have with your children. While this book has been written to help people going through a divorce and the legal action that is often associated with it, many of the activities described here can be applied to any ongoing, high stress situation.
