Darkness, Sing Me a Song David Housewright, 2018-01-02 David Housewright's Edgar Award-winning Holland Taylor series returns with a case of murder resulting from tragic, twisted drama in an extremely wealthy family in Darkness, Sing Me a Song. Holland Taylor is a PI who does simple background checks and other mostly unchallenging cases. Still wounded by the long-ago death of his wife and daughter, and newly mourning a recently failed relationship, Taylor doesn't have much interest in more challenging work. But almost by accident, he finds himself in the middle of the crime of the century. Eleanor Barrington, the doyenne of a socially prominent family of great wealth, has been arrested for the murder of Emily Denys, her son's fiancée. Barrington made no secret of her disdain for the victim, convinced that she was trying to take advantage of her son and her family. Taylor had been brought in to do a full background check on Emily, only to discover that both her name and her background were fabricated. Before he could learn more, she was murdered—shot in the head outside her apartment. Barrington had been overheard threatening to kill her son's fiancé and an eyewitness claims to have seen her kill Emily. But that's not the worst of it. Barrington's own son has even worse accusations to make against her. Caught in the dark tangle of a twisted family and haunted by his own past, Taylor finds that the truth is both elusive and dangerous.

The Mad Ones Kait Kerrigan,Brian Lowdermilk,2019-09-18 Mad to live, mad to talk, mad to be saved... 18-year-old Samantha Brown sits in a hand-me-down car with the keys clutched in her hand. Caught between a yearning for the unknown and feeling bound by expectation, she telescopes back to a time before her world had fallen apart. As she relives her senior year, we meet Sam's well-intentioned helicopter mother Bev and her high school sweetheart of a boyfriend Adam, but it's her painfully alive best friend Kelly that haunts her. Sam loses not only her best friend but also the part of herself that was learning to be brave. Now, Sam has to make a decision. Will she follow her mother's dreams for her, or will she summon the courage to drive away from her friends and family into a future she can't imagine?

Sing Me Home Shannon O'Brien, 2016-09-01 At Jones University, a woman's education always comes first. That's the model Ellie Gallagher is determined to follow. With less than a year of school to go, she juggles her commitments to her studies, her job, and her a cappella group gracefully. When she's paired with fellow senior Jolene Weiss on a class project, sly glances and flirtation quickly replace thoughts of homework. But graduation can't arrive soon enough for Jolene. Longing to be free of university life, she's busy trying to snag a job on a political campaign. Add to that the fact that she's in a different a cappella group than Ellie. Though music was their first bond, the rivalry of a cappella and the uncertainty of graduation may force them apart.

Sheltered! Richard Vernon, 2019-12-04 I wish to thank God in heaven first who spoke to my daughter back in September 2013 and called me up the day after I was singing on TV, "hey dad I think God wants you to write a book he also confirmed this through a well-known book author throughout the world who lived in the same city that I did Anderson Indiana she may still live there today Ruth Shininess said it to me almost word-for-word as my daughter said "Hey Richard, I think God wants you to write a book that really confirm to me that I was supposed to write something. But at that point I really didn't know what I was supposed to have written but I would find out not too long after that so I'm very grateful to my daughter Megan whom I love with all my heart to have gotten this started for without God speaking to her there would not be a book and my personal friend Ruth who confirmed it that day. I also thank my good friend Miss Q. who has been a very valuable resource to help get these lifestories over to my publisher, I appreciate her with all my heart. I wish to thank my publisher Xlibris for Jen Heavens and her valuable assistance to me as an author and Patrick Manning for allowing me to stay the course and tell me to keep with it, I appreciate them and all the staff that work there. And I want to thank my friends in Boston my friends at the Southampton shelter where I was a resident there for two and a half years and the many friends I made there and all the staff there including case manager supervisors my former bosses I appreciate everyone there and to other friends in Boston who might sing with and their patient support with me getting this book done. I as the author am grateful for all of it.
