International Migration and Development in South Asia Md Mizanur Rahman, Tan Tai Yong, 2015-04-10 In migration studies, the nexus between migration and development in the global South has been meticulously debated. However, a unanimous resolution to this debate has not been found, due to the ever-changing nature of international migration. This book advances knowledge on the global debate on the migration-development relationship by documenting experiences in a number of countries in South Asia. Drawing on the experiences of global South Asians, this volume documents the impact of migration on the social, economic, and political fields in the broader context of development. It also presents a regional experience by looking into the migration-development nexus in the context of South Asia, and analyses the role South Asian migrants and diaspora communities play in the South Asian society. Contributions from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds, including sociology, anthropology, political science, international relations and economics, document the development implications of South Asian migration. Broad in scope in terms of contents, timeline of migration, and geographical coverage, the book presents empirically-based case studies involving India, Bangladesh, Sri Lanka, Pakistan, and Nepal and their emigrants living and working in different parts of the world. Going beyond reporting the impacts of migration on economic development by highlighting the implications of 'social development' on society, this book provides a fascinating contribution to the fields of Asian Development, Migration Studies and South Asian Studies.

The Mysterious Widows of Mehboobpura Anuradha Singh, 2018-04-26 Ira is an army Officer wife, posted at Ferozepur Cantonment, she is a passionate teacher. Nimrat is a new admission in her class, a daughter of a queer looking Veer Nari. Ira is worried that Nimrat is not studying well, being passionate about her work, she goes to Nimrat's house to meet her mother and talk about Nimrat's poor performance in school at Mehboobpura Pind and is reeled by the look and character of the Pind. She comes across some very devastating information about the Pind and now is hunted by the goons. Ira's life is in danger. She has to finish these diabolical people or she will be finished. Will Ira be successful in unfolding and further finishing the racket? Will she come out of it unscathed?

Handbook of Research on Transforming Mathematics Teacher Education in the Digital Age Niess, Margaret, 2016-04-22 The digital age provides ample opportunities for enhanced learning experiences for students; however, it can also present challenges for educators who must adapt to and implement new technologies in the classroom. The Handbook of Research on Transforming Mathematics Teacher Education in the Digital Age is a critical reference source featuring the latest research on the development of educators' knowledge for the integration of technologies to improve classroom instruction. Investigating emerging pedagogies for preservice and in-service teachers, this publication is ideal for professionals, researchers, and educational designers interested in the implementation of technology in the mathematics classroom.

The Politics of Dialogue Ranabir Samaddar, 2017-07-05 Offering a detailed analysis of post-colonial South Asia, The Politics of Dialogue discusses the creation and impact of borders and the pervasive tension between the new nations. Neither all-out war nor complete peace, this fragile condition makes political leaders and strategists feel claustrophobic - a war produces an end result but peace allows the rulers to carry out their policies for governing along their preferred path of development. The book shows how cartographic, communal and political lines are not only dividing countries, but that they are being replicated within countries, creating new visible and invisible internal frontiers. It argues that, in a situation where geopolitics constrains democracy, the political class becomes incapable of coping with the tension between the inside/outside, eg democracy appears as an internal problem and geopolitics appears as a problem related to the 'outside'.

Project Rise Up Kulwinder Suri,2022-03-10 We live in a world today in which the topic of mental health holds such importance. With high levels of anxiety, stress, depression and fear impacting the lives of so many, it's no secret why the state of our overall well-being has been negatively impacted. Many factors outside of our control, whether they be cultural or environmental, have made it difficult to seek help when needed. Project Rise Up was written as a self-care book to help steer those on their journey, with an importance placed on specific pillars that not only bring awareness but accountability and action. We all have the potential to cultivate healthy and constructive habits. The answers to all that we are seeking have always been placed within us. The only question worth asking is: How far are we willing to dive inwardly to find them?

Operation Ganga Tarun Pithode,2023-07-18 As war clouds began to loom over Ukraine, thousands of Indian students living there found themselves in a precarious situation. Some students left Ukraine in time, but many remained in the hope that there would be no war, or if there was, it would not affect their studies. However, hope turned into disappointment when all foreign students were advised to leave. Operation Ganga was a campaign conducted by the Government of India to evacuate Indian citizens, mostly students, during the Russia-Ukraine War. The Government of India appealed to all the countries of Europe, the Indian diaspora, Indian embassies, the corporate world and social and religious organisations to provide all possible support in moving Indian students back home from the troubled area. Farish was studying medicine in Sumi. He and his friends were helped by people at the Indian embassy to move through the Ukraine border into Poland. From Poland, transit and food was provided free of cost by the Indian government. The repatriation of Farish is but one success story. Tarun Pithode chronicles of the sufferings of the students and their harrowing journeys, and the role of the Government of India and numerous Indians in rescuing them.

Her Flight to the Love Nest Kuldip Singh Bedi, 2014-03-04
This is the heart rending love story of a handicapped girl, who fights against all odds and gets educated. After doing graduation, she passes B.Ed. She not only becomes a very successful teacher, but also a crusader for the rights of the downtrodden and the women. In spite of working with all the zeal to serve the people, an unfulfilled desire to become a complete woman always torments her. Except for her legs all her limbs are like those of a normal woman. She wants to be loved and feels like doing everything which a woman is capable of doing. She falls in love with a man and wants him to possess her, enter her, make love to her, to make her feel a complete woman. But he does not cross the control line between spiritual love and physical love. She opens herself fully to him but he remains filled more with compassion than passion and she breathes her last. Kuldip Singh Bedi is the Magazine Editor of Jagbani, a Punjabi daily of Hind Samachar group of newspapers. Though an eminent journalist, he is a prolific writer in Punjabi, having authored five novels, three collections of short stories, travelogues and a collection of articles. He has also written dialogues of a few films.

The Rotarian ,1969-12 Established in 1911, The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide. Each issue contains feature articles, columns, and departments about, or of interest to, Rotarians. Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners – from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr. – have written for the magazine.
