Retrofitting Vegas S. Puttagunta, 2013 In 2009, the state of Nevada received nearly forty million dollars in Neighborhood Stabilization Funds from the Department of Housing and Urban Development. The purpose of this funding was to stabilize communities that have suffered from foreclosures and abandonment. In an effort to provide guidance to local officials and maximize how effectively this NSP funding is utilized in retrofitting homes, CARB provided design specifications, energy modeling, and technical support for the Building America Retrofit Alliance (BARA) team and its local partners - Better Building Performance, Nevada Energy Star Partners Green Alliance, and Home Free Nevada - for two retrofit test homes. One home was to demonstrate a modest retrofit and the other a deep energy retrofit. Through this project, CARB has provided two robust solution packages for retrofitting homes built in this region between the 1980s and early 1990s without substantially inconveniencing the occupants. The two test homes, the Carmen and Sierra Hills, demonstrate how cost-effectively energy efficient upgrades can be implemented in the hot, dry climate of the Southwest. In addition, the homes were used as an educational experience for home performance professionals, building trades, remodelers, and the general public. In-field trainings on air-sealing, HVAC upgrades, and insulating were provided to local contractors during the retrofit and BARA documented these retrofits through a series of video presentations, beginning with a site survey and concluding with the finished remodel and test out.

The Real Las Vegas David Littlejohn,1999-10-28 What images come to mind when you think of Las Vegas? Mobsters and showgirls, magicians and tigers, multimillion-dollar poker games and prizefights; towering signboards that light up the night in front of ever more spectacular casino hotels. But real people live here, too--over a million today, two million tomorrow. Greater Las Vegas has long been the fastest growing metropolitan area in America. And almost every aspect of its citizens' lives is influenced by the almighty power of the gambling industry. A team of fifteen reporters led by David Littlejohn, together with prize winning photo-journalist Eric Gran, studied the real Las Vegas--the city beyond the Strip and Downtown--for the better part of a year. They talked to teenagers (whose suicide and dropout rates frighten parents), senior citizens (many of whom spend their days playing bingo and the slots), Mexican immigrants (who build the new houses and clean the hotels), homeless people and angry blacks, as well as local police, active Christians, city officials, and prostitutes. They looked into the local churches, the powerful labor unions, pawn shops, the real estate boom, defiant ranchers to the north, and dire predictions that the city is about to run out of water. Proud Las Vegans claim that theirs is just a friendly southwestern boomtown--the finest community I have ever lived in, says Bishop Daniel Walsh, who comes from San Francisco. But their picture of Las Vegas as a vibrant, civic-minded metropolis conflicts with evidence of transiency, rootlessness, political impotence, and social dysfunction. In this close-up investigation of the real lives being led in America's most tourist-jammed, gambling-driven city, readers will discover a Las Vegas very different from the one they may have seen or imagined.

Ashes on My Lollipop 2 Edward Pucci, 2012-05 IF YOU PUT THIS BOOK DOWN IT WOULD BE A BIG MISTAKE So you have been coming here for a few years and you think you know all there is to know about Las Vegas. The Hotel and Casino management are awfully glad that you feel that way. Take it from me, that confidence you have is music to their ears that keeps them building more and more hotels. Why would you listen to me? Well if you haven't read Ashes On My Lollipop 1, you'd better. I came visiting Las Vegas for the first time in 1958. I continued to visit at least twice a year till 1988. I was the Controller of a Travel Wholesaler in New York that sent thousands of people to Las Vegas. In 1988, I moved here and had occasion to be in the Real Estate business in the height of the boom. I then spent about 5 years teaching in several colleges. I taught some senior citizens how to sell their own homes and became the nemesis of many realtors, who weren't allowed to sell a home in 10 days and get a 6% commission. People were selling their homes in California, which they had bought years ago for $90,000-. They were getting over $500,000- for them and moving to Las Vegas to find another $90,000- home, which rose astronomically until the inevitable slump that hit Las Vegas about 2008. If they had sold in 2005, they would have turned an enormous profit for the second time in their lives. But, WHO KNEW? I also taught Travel and Accounting in college. Then in 1998, I began driving a taxi. I did this for 12 years. Do you have any idea how much you can learn about a city with this job? This book is full of the inside scoop of this city. Tell me who else do you know that has been in my positions in Las Vegas since 1958? Just for the non-accounting minds out there, that's 54 years. You have a choice. Listen to the hype for this city and weep. I'd rather have you read this book and be aware. Because, through it all I still believe that Las Vegas is the greatest city in the world!

Housing Characteristics for Selected Metropolitan Areas ,1976

Summary of Spencer Rascoff & Stan Humphries's Zillow Talk Everest Media,2022-05-16T22:59:00Z Please note: This is a companion version & not the original book. Sample Book Insights: #1 People still believe that buying a house is the best way to grow your money, even though the housing market has bottomed out and foreclosures are still on the rise. #2 According to data compiled by the World Bank, the US stock market is worth more than $18. 7 trillion. The housing market is even bigger, with estimates suggesting that the value of America's housing stock is more than $25. #3 The returns on real estate are better than stocks. The risks are lower, and the benefits are more significant. #4 The idea that young professionals should rent while happy families in the 'burbs should own is rooted in popular culture and the expectations of our family and friends. But our thinking about homeownership is mostly based on sentiment.

Las Vegas: A Desert Paradise Ralph J. Roske,1986-09-01
“PROLOGUE THE SEARCH FOR GOOD WATER On November 7, 1829, a New Mexican trader named Antonio Armijo led a 60-man party on the first leg of what became a historic deviation from the Great Spanish Trail route to Los Angeles. That deviation resulted in the discovery of Las Vegas. By Christmas Day, Armijo’s caravan had crossed southern Utah and moved into the northwest corner of Arizona. The caravan camped near what is now Littlefield — a sleepy hamlet about 100 miles northeast of present Las Vegas. Armijo dispatched a reconnaissance party to look for a possible shortcut west, and to look for water. A member of the party was a young Mexican scout named Rafael Rivera. He decided to break away from the main party and head due west alone over unexplored desert.” Excerpt From: Ralph J. Roske. “Las Vegas: A Desert Paradise.” iBooks.

Las Vegas Mitch Barker, 2013 Las Vegas, New Mexico, is 70 years older than the Nevada city of the same name. Eleven years after its founding in 1835, it was the first settlement in Mexico reached by invading US troops in the Mexican-American War. In later years, it was an intensely violent place, an equal to Dodge City and Tombstone. Gunmen such as Billy the Kid, Mysterious Dave Mather, Doc Holliday, and others walked the streets of Las Vegas. The town also built grand houses and mercantile buildings. It rivaled Albuquerque and Santa Fe for importance and boasted one of the state's two streetcar systems. Here, Teddy Roosevelt announced his availability to serve as president, and Tom Mix filmed his earliest movies.
