Janey the Vet Janey Lowes, 2020-03-19 'Janey is like a whirlwind of selflessness. A beautiful spirit in a beautiful country doing a beautiful thing. I encourage my children to be more 'Janey'. With more positive spirits like Janey, the world would be a better place.' - Ben Fogle In 2014 and in her mid-twenties, Janey Lowes had been a vet for just two years when she left her home in County Durham and went travelling. Visiting Sri Lanka, she was horrified to see the state of so many of the island's dogs, in particular the three million strays. Over 5,000 miles from home, Janey decided there and then that she was going to move to the island indefinitely and do everything within her power to help them. She raised £10,000 to get started, setting up a charity called WECare Worldwide, and began work. Frightened, determined and excited all at the same time, she found a local who was willing to work with her and began scouring the streets for dogs in need. Some she patched up as best she could at the roadside, others she brought back and treated in a make-shift surgery she had cobbled together in her new home. With very little equipment, she and her small team came up with new and ingenious ways to treat the animals. In this highly inspiring and heartfelt book full of challenges and adventure, Janey introduces us to her world and the tireless work she carries out. As she says, 'I feel as though all these dogs are my dogs and I have a responsibility to them.' In it, we meet many of the colourful characters who have come to offer help, along with innumerable street dogs who have suffered all sorts of trauma and injury, only to be scooped up by Janey and her team and saved.

Lowes Moore Chronicles: From the Boys & Girls Club to the NBA Lowes Moore,2014-12-31 Lowes Moore Chronicles: Life on The Narrow Road - From the Boys & Girls Club of Mount Vernon to the NBA, is a unique story about how the Boys & Girls Club changed the future and direction of a young man's life and his dream to play in the NBA. He candidly shares his academic struggles and how domestic violence and substance abuse nearly destroyed his family, which he attributes to finding Christ at such an early age in his life. While many talk the talk about traveling on the Narrow Road, Lowes Moore shares his story of walking the walk on the Narrow Road even while in the NBA. I have known Lowes for a very long time. He has of course been disciplined as an athlete, but has always been consistent. I have never ever seen or heard or been exposed to any example of him being inconsistent with his walk with God.--Denzel Washington This book will take the reader on an inspirational journey with highlights from the importance of family and family values to finding purpose. Lowes shares his amusing story of finding God while pursuing a love interest during his high school years. He also share stories of Life in the NBA, and the temptations as a professional athlete. He attributes the morals, values and principles learned from his mentor Mr. James Jones of the Mount Vernon Club as one of the most important reasons for his development as a man. As a potential first round draft pick, he reveals how his coach at West Virginia basically sabotaged his opportunity to go in the 1st round by withholding his information for the draft. Always keeping the faith, Lowes still made it to the NBA but soon finds himself in the CBA then back in the NBA, still committed to his family and wife. It is a rare and beautiful story of how there is great reward by living a moral and Christ like life.

An Honest Hunger Robert Lowes, 2020-04-16 The poems in An Honest Hunger evince this kind of hunger for God, which is why they can't resist wisecracks, even about God, even in the midst of suffering—especially in the midst of suffering. The poems, in forms ranging from free verse to sonnets, arise from diverse topics and occasions—coming of age and aging, family, mortality, faith, doubt, cosmology, wildlife, small towns, marketing, poetry, organized religion, fishing, and gardening. At times poignant, at times buoyant, the collection risks irreverence for the sake of authentic reverence. As the poem “Big Weepy” explains: “Judgment Day is a big joke in the right light./The laughter knocks you down to your knees.”

40 Days with God in the Garden Melody Lowes, 2012-06-21 Is your heart hurting? Are you struggling to keep it all together under a heavy load? Is your journey leaving your heart battered and bruised? Are your life circumstances pinning you down and drowning your dreams? Ah, friend. I have been there, too. When your heart is hungry, when your spirit withers under fierce opposition, when your soul is desperate to find what it so desperately craves, nothing but more of Jesus, more of God's peaceful presence will satisfy. Come with me to the garden its leafy boughs sing soothing songs, therapeutic to the soul. Its restful peace restores, its blossoms bless and encourage. The lessons a garden teaches are accessible to all and God's green-leafed grace can bring health and vitality to your desolate spirit as you stroll its paths. So come with me to the garden. If you are anything like me, you will find what your soul thirsts for so frantically among its fruits and foliage. You may just find God there
