Riding the Magic Carpet Tom Anderson,2006-06-01 The right-hand point at Jeffreys Bay is one of the surfing world's most exciting finds, and from the age of twelve it had been my life's purpose to surf there. J-Bay, South Africa, has the fantasy, the almost mythical waves every surfer dreams of riding once in their lifetime. But Tom wouldn't go until he was ready. He would seek out surf-spots from the virgin reef-breaks of the Outer Orkneys to the temple point-breaks of Indonesia, from the beautiful beaches of France to the wilds of Sri Lanka, on his quest to ride the waves of his dreams. Get on the road, get stoked, and get in the water.

Magic Carpet Ride Nancy Karlsten Eldridge,2018-10-31 Magic Carpet Ride invites the reader to take an up, up and away journey while using origami paper to create the settings and the figures that enhance the adventure. Along the way, the reader visits different continents, and also places more familiar. The illustrations are created by the author, using ideas and colors that are eye-catching and engaging to enhance the magical journey. The point of the story is to encourage the reader to use their imagination. When the imagination is used, wonderful things happen. So, why not climb aboard your own magic carpet and see what adventure awaits you? Can be enjoyed by readers of all ages. Primarily engaging for ages 7-13.

Black Tickets Jayne Anne Phillips, 2011-11-16 From one of our most accomplished writers: the reputation-making debut short story collection that paved the way for a new generation of writers. • “Brilliant ... Phillips is a virtuoso.” —The Chicago Tribune Jayne Anne Phillips's reputation-making debut collection paved the way for a new generation of writers. Raved about by reviewers and embraced by the likes of Raymond Carver, Frank Conroy, Annie Dillard, and Nadine Gordimer, Black Tickets now stands as a classic. With an uncanny ability to depict the lives of men and women who rarely register in our literature, Phillips writes stories that lay bare their suffering and joy. Here are the abused and the abandoned, the violent and the passive, the impoverished and the disenfranchised who populate the small towns and rural byways of the country. A patron of the arts reserves his fondest feeling for the one man who wants it least. A stripper, the daughter of a witch, escapes from poverty into another kind of violence. A young girl during the Depression is caught between the love of her crazy father and the no less powerful love of her sorrowful mother. These are great American stories that have earned a privileged place in our literature.
