Black Magic & Witchcraft Lord Shiva,Rishi Maharishi,Mohan Kumar,2020-04-02 I am very happy to know that you guys liked my mantra books translated into English and in other languages, which I received from my mentor or Guru.I hope that this book will prove very useful not only for the Hindus but for all the people of the world who believe in Sanatana Dharma and follow it. If you are one of them who closely know the Sanatana Dharma, then you must also know that it is a Science, not a superstition. All books of the Sanatana Dharma or the Hindu Dharma are based on Esoteric Science, which common man can't understand easily. You have to follow the instructions of your mentors or Gurus from whom you are getting Initiation or Diksha. In this book, I have included the mantras and the ancient text or conversation between Shiva and Parvati, which I received from my Mentors or Gurus. I have presented some very useful mantras for the welfare of the public and the whole world through this book. In the series The Mantras, I have presented three books earlier which is very helpful for the beginners who wish to take the first step in the world of Tantra. In those book you will learn meditation and concentration. You will also know some facts of tantra-mantra. Meditation is most important thing in the Tantra, without which you can not understand the Tantra. Meditation will open the path of the world of Tantra. Meditation is also divided in many forms and of many types. It will improve your focus and concentration which is very necessary during exercitation (Sadhana). The most recommended book for the meditation is Vigyan Bhairava Tantra. In my another book, Shiv Swarodaya - A divine Law of breathing you will learn about the Tantra-Mantra and its application. In my another book The Basic Mantras you will learn and know some mantras which will improve your knowledge and faith in the Tantra. It will also provide you supernatural powers, that will help you to get Siddhis of another mantras. It will also remove all negativity not only from your life but also from your concious and sub-concious mind. All these books will help you to learn and get Siddhis of the mantras which is discussed in this book. All the process to get Siddhis, or to prove, or to initiate the mantra's powers or energies are discussed with the mantras. In Part-1, I presented the conversation of Lord Shiva (as Lord Bhairava) and Goddess Parvati (as Goddess Bhairavi). During the conversation some mantra and secret of mantras are also revealed by the Bhairava. This is very important part of the book. You can consider this part as a Esoteric Science. In the Part-2, the process, application and mantras are discussed in detail. In this part, you will learn about the perfect time, the particular date (Tithis), the process, the auspicious or unauspicious days, etc. which are the most important part of the Tantra-Mantra to be successful. Many useful mantras are given in this books which is very useful in your daily life. The mantras of subduing or subjugation (Vashikaran), attraction or charm (Aakarshan), good luck, protection, etc. are given. I hope these mantras will help you to make your life successful and reduces your problems. These mantras will make your work easy and accurate. But never use these mantras with wrong intention, because that will harm you. You must use these mantras for the welfare of the society, so that you and the society will develop and promote humanity. Never use these mantras to make someone bad or to make someone's life worst. This act will take you in hell. So, again I request all the practitioner or the Sadhaka to use these mantras only for the betterment of the society. Never harm anyone. If you are the one who buy this book for the welfare for the humanity and spread happiness in the world. I appreciate and love you from the core of my heart. And also I feel proud to be a medium for such a great work.

Software codes of mantra, tantra, witchcraft, black magic, evil eye, evil tongue &c. VED from VICTORIA INSTITUTIONS, This book can be downloaded as a PDF file from here. Prologue This is not a guide-book for studying any occult art. Instead it is a writing that proposes to take up the possibility of there being a real machinery behind the working of so-called mantra, tantra, evil eye, black magic, voodoo etc. This book does not teach any of the above mentioned arts. Yet, it does try to find a pathway or opening by which we can find or enter the supernatural arena from where the supernatural software codes of reality and life is designed and maintained. It is a writing that tries to discuss a probability that is not connected to material sciences. Instead it proposes to examine the possibility of there being a supernatural software application location wherein reality might be seen in the code view as-well-as the design view. These two views are apart from the real view, which is the physical reality. The ultimate aim of this book is to propose a pathway via which we can approach the supernatural software location, where all of reality, life, living organisms, brain software &c. are designed and maintained. This book is not a sudden writing on any impulse of the moment. I wrote my first book on codes in languages, March of the Evil Empires; English versus the feudal languages, around 1989. The final version of the book was completed around 2000. In the concluding part of that book, I did hint about the possibility of there being something akin to a software background to reality. And that languages are software applications with varied capacities. In around the year 2005, I wrote a series of posts in a GB website on the same subject. It was basically a lot of unconnected themes all pointing to the same theme. This I later published as a digital book under the name: Software codes of reality, life and languages. Then my next major book on the subject came out with the name: Codes of reality! What is language? Here again the same theme of connecting the idea of there being a software realm behind reality and that languages have software codes which can directly connect to the software of reality was elaborated. The focus was on languages being sort of software applications through which physical reality could be influenced. Still, the theme was going forward only in very brief paces. A few years ago, I had to write a series of posts for supporting the contentions of Homoeopathy, by basing the ideas from my understandings. That Homoeopathy does work on the principle of a software program rectifying the software of life and human body. The book title was: The machinery of Homœopathy! Recently I happened to read Edgar Thurston's Omens and Superstitions of Southern India. It was at that time that I pondered upon reworking out the arguments from the perspective of mantra, tantra, black magic, witchcraft etc. The first thing I did was to create a very readable form of that book. As I went on doing that work, I could get to read the book also. This present book is being promoted as a Commentary on Omens and Superstitions of Southern India. However, only the last part of this book really is a sort of commentary. Even in that part, it is not exactly a commentary. I merely quoted some sentences from his book and elaborated upon them as per what I wanted to convey. Edgar Thurston's Omens and Superstitions of Southern India is definitely a great book. My writings do not aim to go against that book. This book of mine does contain a lot of mentions about Thurston's book. This book commences by mentioning OMENS AND SUPERSTITIONS OF SOUTHERN INDIA. However, it moves beyond to a wider ambit. It returns to Thurston's book at the end as a commentary. However, a mention of Thurston's book can be felt all along. I have used a few images from other old public domain books. These images are mainly taken from my own collection from such books. Due to some issues, I do not have the exact record as to where I got some of the images. I believe that such images have been taken from Edgar Thurston's Castes and Tribes of Southern India. Before commencing the reading of the book, the reader is further informed that in various locations, the text would seem to be dealing with cultural aspects. However, without clearly mentioning these things, it would difficult to go directly into the effects of supernatural software codes. DEVERKOVIL September 10th 2016

Explaining Mantras Robert A. Yelle,2004-03-01 Explaining Mantras explores the intersection of poetry and magic in the mantras or verbal formulas of Hindu Tantra. The author reveals how mantras work in light of both the esoteric tradition of Tantra and a general semiotic theory of ritual. Mantras mimic the act of sexual reproduction and the cosmic cycle of creation and destruction. A mantra that imitates creation is believed to be more creative and effective in producing a real-world result. Drawing from linguistics, semiotics, anthropology, and philosophy, as well as the history of religions, the author argues that mantras and other ritual discourses use rhetorical devices, including imitation, to construct the persuasive illusion of a natural language, one with a direct and immediate connection to reality. This vital relation between poetry and ritual has been neglected in many current theories of religion. Explaining Mantras combines the study of ancient Tantric rituals with the latest theories in the human sciences, and will be of interest to a broad range of readers.

Atharva Veda - the Fourth Book Atharvan And ANGIRAS,2019-12 The Atharvaveda is composed in Vedic Sanskrit, and it is a collection of 730 hymns with about 6,000 mantras, divided into 20 books. The text is in poem form deploying a diversity of Vedic matters. The Atharvaveda is sometimes called the Veda of magical formulas. It is said to represent a 'popular religion', incorporating not only formulas for magic, but also the daily rituals for initiation into learning (upanayana), marriage and funerals. Royal rituals and the duties of the court priests are also included in the Atharvaveda. The core text of the Atharvaveda falls within the classical Mantra period of Vedic Sanskrit, during the 2nd millennium BC - younger than the Rigveda, and roughly contemporary with the Yajurveda mantras, the Rigvedic Khilani, and the Sāmaveda. There is no absolute dating of any Vedic text including the Atharvaveda. The dating for Atharvaveda is derived from the new metals and items mentioned therein; it, for example, mentions iron (as krsna ayas, literally black metal), and such mentions have led the scholars to the estimate that the Atharvaveda hymns were compiled in the early Indian Iron Age, c. 1200 to 1000 BC, corresponding to the early Kuru Kingdom. The Atharvaveda represents a developing 2nd millennium BCE tradition of magical-religious rites to address superstitious anxiety, spells to remove maladies believed to be caused by demons, and herbs- and nature-derived potions as medicine. Many books of the Atharvaveda Samhita are dedicated to rituals without magic and to theosophy. The text is one of oldest surviving record of the evolutionary practices in religious medicine and reveals the earliest forms of folk healing. It contains hymns many of which were charms, magic spells and incantations meant to be pronounced by the person who seeks some benefit, or more often by a sorcerer who would say it on his or her behalf. The most frequent goal of these hymns charms and spells were long life of a loved one or recovery from some illness. In these cases, the affected would be given substances such as a plant (leaf, seed, root) and an amulet. Some magic spells were for soldiers going to war with the goal of defeating the enemy, others for anxious lovers seeking to remove rivals or to attract the lover who is less than interested, some for success at a sporting event, in economic activity, for bounty of cattle and crops, or removal of petty pest bothering a household. Some hymns were not about magic spells and charms, but prayer qua prayer and philosophical speculations. A significant portion of the text book are hymns for domestic rituals without magic or spells, and some are theosophical speculations such as all Vedic gods are One. The Atharvaveda includes mantras and verses for treating a variety of ailments. For example, the verses in hymn 4.15 of the recently discovered Paippalada version of the Atharvaveda, discuss how to deal with an open fracture, and how to wrap the wound with Rohini plant (Ficus Infectoria, native to India). Numerous hymns of the Atharvaveda are prayers and incantations wishing a child or loved one to get over some sickness and become healthy again, along with comforting the family members. The Vedic era assumption was that diseases are caused by evil spirits, external beings or demonic forces who enter the body of a victim to cause sickness.

Arabian Magic Geoffrey Harris,2015-09-10 The present work is a compilation of occult knowledge acquired from diverse sources of the Ilmu Al-Hikmah, or the Islamic occult tradition in Indonesia. The majority of these teachings represent the legacy left to us by the spiritual Islamic adepts of the Middle East. Elements of Indonesian Shamanism and Kejawen may also be found in the occult knowledge presented in this book and others of these series. The latter tradition is one of the other major occult streams to be found in the island of Java. Most of the occult teachings of the exercises, rituals, rites, spells, etc., to be found in these series of books have been gathered from the numerous metaphysical Islamic lodges in Indonesia. Not all of these are spiritually oriented, some are decidedly black in nature. We trust that the readers of these books are spiritually mature and will not use or apply these teachings for any negative purposes.

Software Codes of Mantra, Tantra, Witchcraft, Black Magic, Evil Eye, Evil Tongue Ved from Victoria Institutions,Edgar Thurston,2016-09-14 This is a writing that proposes to take up the possibility of there being a non-tangible machinery behind the working of the so-called mantra, tantra, evil eye, black magic, voodoo etc. This book makes an attempt to find a pathway or opening by which we can find and enter the supernatural arena, where the supernatural software codes of reality & life are designed and maintained. It is a writing that tries to discuss a probability which is totally apart from the claims of material sciences. It proposes to examine the possibility of there being a supernatural software application location, wherein reality might be seen in the code view as well as in the design view. These two views are apart from the real view, which is the physical reality. The ultimate aim of this book is to propose a pathway via which we can approach this supernatural software location. This book does move into a connected location: that of the real machinery that works in Homoeopathy. A very clear explanation of the most probable manner in which Homoeopathy works is elaborated. Beyond all that there is also a terrific portending of how all great native-English social systems can go into atrophy with the spread of feudal languages inside.

Mystical Mantras. Magical Results. Sunil Padiyar,2013-12-27 The Law of Attraction states that “Like attracts like” and is used to communicate with the cosmic force to get whatever you want in life. However, Law of Attraction as it is taught requires you to unite both the conscious and subconscious parts of your mind to communicate with the cosmic force. This is very difficult and impossible to many. However, there is another way. In my research of the ancient Indian scriptures known as the Vedas and the Upanishads, I found simple single syllable Sanskrit sounds (mantras) used by great Indian yogis, gurus and warriors to communicate with the cosmic force to obtain incredible powers to use in everyday life. Vedas state that the cosmic force purposefully created these sounds at the time of the creation of the universe and is always actively listening and responding to these sounds. Latest scientific experiments have shown that the very first sounds heard in the universe could very well have been these sounds. In this book I detail vastly simplified techniques that take only a few seconds a day where these mystical mantras are used to communicate with the cosmic force and get whatever it is you want in life. Specific techniques cover jobs, promotions, career success, happy relationships, great health, wealth, and abundant prosperity. Read, enjoy, practice and prosper!
