Sir Robert Peel Richard Gaunt, 2022-07-07 Sir Robert Peel (1788-1850) was one of the most significant political figures in nineteenth-century Britain. He was also one of the most controversial. In this new, three-volume edition, Dr Richard Gaunt, an authority on Peel's life and work, brings together a range of contemporary perspectives considering Peel's life and achievements. From the first observation of Peel's precocious talent as an Oxford undergraduate to his burgeoning reputation as a cabinet minister, the volumes draw together sources on Peel's forty-year political career. The edition pays particular attention to the most controversial aspects of his political life – the granting of Catholic Emancipation in 1829, his 'founding' of the Conservative Party during the 1830s and the achievements of his landmark government of 1841-6, culminating in the repeal of the corn laws in 1846. It also considers Peel's post-1846 career, and the unusual position he occupied in British politics before his untimely death in 1850. Combining perspectives from different parts of the political spectrum, the collection will be of use to a wide range of researchers, with interests in history, politics, religion, economics and political biography.

El Regreso de Sherlock Holmes Arthur Conan Doyle, 2023-04-23 En la primavera de 1894, el asesinato del honorable Ronald Adair, ocurrido en las más extrañas e inexplicables circunstancias, tenía interesado a todo Londres y consternado al mundo elegante. El público estaba ya informado de los detalles del crimen que habían salido a la luz durante la investigación policial; pero en aquel entonces se había suprimido mucha información, ya que el ministerio fiscal disponía de pruebas tan abrumadoras que no se consideró necesario dar a conocer todos los hechos. Hasta ahora, después de transcurridos casi diez años, no se me ha permitido aportar los eslabones perdidos que faltaban para completar aquella notable cadena. El crimen tenía interés por sí mismo, pero para mí aquel interés se quedó en nada, comparado con una derivación inimaginable, que me ocasionó el sobresalto y la sorpresa mayores de toda mi vida aventurera. Aun ahora, después de tanto tiempo, me estremezco al pensar en ello y siento de nuevo aquel repentino torrente de alegría, asombro e incredulidad que inundó por completo mi mente. Aquí debo pedir disculpas a ese público que ha mostrado cierto interés por las ocasiones y fugaces visiones que yo le ofrecía de los pensamientos y actos de un hombre excepcional, por no haber compartido con él mis conocimientos. Me habría considerado en el deber de hacerlo de no habérmelo impedido una prohibición terminante, impuesta por su propia boca, que no se levantó hasta el día 3 del mes pasado.

Príncipes de Irlanda (Saga de Dublín 1) Edward Rutherfurd, 2015-04-16 Un retrato inmejorable de la historia del país, desde la llegada de san Patricio a la isla pagana de Irlanda, la resistencia a la cristianización o el enfrentamiento con los vikingos, hasta los conflictos entre los príncipes de Irlanda y los reyes de Inglaterra. Para comprender la vida de un país es necesario conocer su historia; esa es la oportunidad que brinda esta Novela a través de historias ficticias y personajes inventados. Un viaje imaginario a través de los siglos, con parada en los hechos más significativos del devenir de Irlanda, que se engarzan perfectamente a la ficción y que arribará, en este primer volumen de los dos concebidos por Rutherfurd, hasta el siglo XVI. Una magnífica epopeya sobre el amor y la guerra, la vida de una familia y una intriga a lo largo de once siglos en Irlanda. La crítica ha dicho... «Un guiso exquisito con el punto justo de especias.» Sunday Telegraph «Suspense, aventuras de piratas y relatos apasionados de amor y guerra.» The Times

Historia de Irlanda (3a. ed.). John O'Beirne Ranelagh, 2014 Esta tercera edición de la reconocida historia de Irlanda de John O'Beirne Ranelagh incorpora los acontecimientos políticos y económicos ocurridos en los últimos años. Profundamente revisada y actualizada, analiza la historia de Irlanda desde los primeros tiempos a través de los celtas, Cromwell, los asentamientos, la hambruna, la Independencia, la bomba de Omagh, las iniciativas de paz..., hasta llegar al colapso financiero de 2007. Perfila a sus protagonistas más destacados desde Diarmuid MacMurrough a Gerry Adams y arroja nueva luz sobre los hechos, del Norte y del Sur, que han dado forma a la Irlanda de hoy. El lugar que ocupa este país en el mundo moderno y su relación con el Reino Unido, los EEUU y Europa también se examinan con una mirada fresca y original, libre de prejuicios. El interés mundial por Irlanda sigue en aumento, pero mientras antes se centraba especialmente en la violencia en Irlanda del Norte, las nuevas políticas económicas y los tumultuosos acontecimientos financieros acaecidos en el Sur en los primeros años del siglo xxi han abierto nuevos debates que dibujan un nuevo interés. Esta es una nueva historia para una nueva era.

Ética en los conflictos de la modernidad Alasdair MacIntyre, 2017-10-01 ¿Qué deseo? ¿Por qué deseo? ¿Lo que deseo, es realmente lo mejor? Cuando tratamos de llevar estas preguntas a un estadio algo más avanzado, nos convertimos en filósofos sin apenas darnos cuenta. La indagación se vuelve filosófica. MacIntyre acude entonces a ejemplos extraídos de Hume, Aristóteles, Tomás de Aquino y Marx, entre otros, para salvar ese abismo entre filosofía y práctica diaria, en el contexto de la Modernidad avanzada. Trata entonces de mostrar que solo desde una perspectiva tomista aristotélica podemos caracterizar adecuadamente algunos rasgos clave del actual orden social.

Dublineses James Joyce, 2020-04-28 Aunque fue publicada en 1914, Dublineses había sido concluida nueve años antes, en 1905, mas el retraso de su aparición pública no había sido voluntario. Dos editores y un impresor pusieron reiteradas objeciones a la obra por cuestiones morales, y Joyce se había resistido tenazmente a aceptar sus modificaciones. No obstante, esos nueve años sirvieron para que el autor revisara los textos y para que añadiese tres nuevos, dotando al libro de una cohesión aún mayor de la que ya tenía, y enriqueciéndolo en especial con el que lo cierra, «Los muertos», considerado uno de los mejores relatos de la historia de la literatura. Así nació Dublineses, una colección de relatos cortos que describen la rígida y estancada sociedad irlandesa de la época, sujeta a la moral católica y a los dictados del Imperio británico; todo ello en un momento en el que el nacionalismo irlandés pugnaba con fuerza porque se reconociese la legitimidad de sus demandas. Considerada por los críticos como un prefacio de sus obras posteriores, sobre todo de su gran obra magna Ulises, Dublineses se constituye como la obra que dio inicio a la narrativa original, riquísima y compleja de Joyce, y que consiguió la liberación de la expresión artística del encorsetamiento en el que estaba sumida. Una obra imprescindible, pues, para apreciar y comprender mejor la narrativa del autor irlandés.

Spanish-Irish Relations Through the Ages Declan M. Downey, Julio Crespo MacLennan, 2008 This collection of essays, the proceedings of the 1st International Conference on Spanish-Irish Relations, held in Salamanca in 2004, is representative of a whole new historiographical approach to and revision of the study of Irish history from Continental European sources (in this case Spanish sources). The contributors provide new and exciting insights based on original source material, into the cultural, economic, diplomatic and political dimensions of the centuries-old relationships between Spain and Ireland. The chronological scope of this collection incorporates the medieval, early modern and modern/contemporary periods. Among the contributors are established scholars such as J.R. Seymour Phillips, Ciaran Brady, Michael Kennedy, Fearghal McGarry, Patricia O'Connell, Susannah Riordan, Áscar Recio Morales, Enrique GarcÃ-a HernÃ-n and also emerging scholars of note such as Mark Empey, Igor PÃrez Tostado and Diego Tellez AlarcÃ-a.

El Colegio de los Irlandeses en Salamanca hacia 1808. Una nota sobre la correspondencia y otras circunstancias al tiempo de la invasión francesa León GÓMEZ RIVAS, 2014-05-12 Esta nueva edición de la Miscelánea Alfonso IX informa de las actividades realizadas por el Centro de Historia Universitaria Alfonso IX (CEHU), Centro Propio de la Universidad de Salamanca, a lo largo del año 2009. Se presenta, en esta ocasión, con el título monográfico de «Universidades Hispánicas: colegios y conventos universitarios en la Edad Moderna (II)», por ser el tema que articuló los XVI Coloquios Alfonso IX, celebrados en los meses de febrero, marzo y abril de 2009, y cuyas actas se publican en la primera sección del libro. Con estos Coloquios, organizados en forma de ciclo de conferencias/ponencias y seminarios de investigación en la Facultad de Geografía e Historia de la Universidad de Salamanca, se continúan y completan una serie de Jornadas científicas, dedicadas al estudio de distintos modelos de colegios y conventos universitarios, y a su interacción con su entorno, en el ámbito territorial hispánico y en el marco cronológico preferente del llamado Antiguo Régimen o período Moderno. Los trabajos resultantes de los XVI Coloquios Alfonso IX, que ahora publicamos, tratan sobre distintos modelos de Colegios y Conventos-Universidad en el marco peninsular, es decir, sobre instituciones universitarias de fundación eclesiástica o particular, con bulas de erección o de otorgamiento de grados, y reconocimiento regio posterior en la mayor parte de los casos, que tuvieron su fundamentación y mantuvieron vínculos con un colegio o convento preexistente, según la historiografía clásica de universidades. Todas estas universidades también pueden calificarse de «menores» por su limitada función institucional y social, y en relación con otras universidades de mayor proyección, a veces situadas en su entorno, y en particular con las «mayores» de Salamanca, Valladolid y Alcalá. De esta forma, diversos especialistas trazan, en la primera sección del libro, el estado de la cuestión historiográfico de estos centros de estudios; nos presentan una síntesis panorámica de su trayectoria histórica, deteniéndose en los aspectos más significativos y diferenciadores, y nos informan de la bibliografía de consulta. Así, y en relación con el modelo de Colegio-Universidad, se recogen los estudios de Inmaculada Arias de Saavedra Alías (de la Universidad de Granada) sobre Baeza, y de Manuel Casado Arboniés (Universidad de Alcalá) sobre Sigüenza. Por lo que se refiere al modelo de Convento-Universidad, se incluyen los trabajos de Mario Martínez Gomis (Universidad de Alicante) sobre Orihuela, y de José Carlos Vizuete Mendoza (Universidad de Castilla-La Mancha) sobre Almagro. Siguen a este bloque de contenidos los estudios presentados en los dos seminarios de investigación que se organizaron en el marco de dichos XVI Coloquios Alfonso IX: Agustín Vivas Moreno (Universidad de Extremadura) plantea, en su trabajo, la necesidad de la creación de Centros de Información y Documentación en Historia Universitaria, y establece una planificación para el establecimiento de estos Centros; mientras que Miguel Anxo Pena González (Universidad Pontificia de Salamanca) analiza los acontecimientos históricos y momentos historiográficos determinantes en la configuración e identificación del concepto «Escuela de Salamanca». En la sección miscelánea de Líneas de Investigación, presentamos, en primer lugar, tres trabajos referidos a la Universidad de Salamanca y sus instituciones: Francisco Javier Alejo Montes (Universidad de Extremadura) elabora una lista completa de los catedráticos que impartieron docencia en la Universidad salmantina entre los años 1575 y 1598, fechas delimitadas por el trabajo recopilatorio realizado en el mismo sentido por otros investigadores. Margarita Ruiz Maldonado (Universidad de Salamanca) estudia diferentes obras artísticas del período Moderno que reflejan la postura continuada del Estudio salmantino a favor de la declaración del dogma de la Inmaculada Concepción. Y León Gómez Rivas (Universidad Europea de Madrid) nos presenta la correspondencia dirigida, en tiempos de la Guerra de Independencia, al rector del Colegio de los Irlandeses, Patrick Curtis, y al que sería su sucesor, Patrick Mangan. Siguen, a continuación, otros tres estudios referidos a otras universidades y ámbitos culturales del espacio hispánico. José María Lahoz Finestres (Universidad de Las Palmas de Gran Canaria) cuantifica la población estudiantil de la Universidad de Huesca en el siglo XVII, centrando su atención en los estudiantes que no obtuvieron ningún grado académico y en sus posibilidades de promoción. Por su parte, Alberto Navas Blanco (Universidad Central de Venezuela) traza los antecedentes históricos del Archivo de la Universidad Central de Venezuela y se refiere al proceso de sistematización y automatización que se está llevando a cabo en el mismo. Por último, Martha Elizabeth Laguna Enrique (becaria de investigación en la Universidad de Salamanca) estudia la figura del obispo Juan José Díaz de Espada, de formación salmantina, una de las figuras determinantes en la introducción de las ideas ilustradas en Cuba. Se cierran los contenidos de la Miscelánea Alfonso IX, como en otras ocasiones, con la información sobre el Centro de Historia Universitaria Alfonso IX referida al año 2009: memoria anual de sus actividades; donaciones registradas con destino a la Biblioteca del Centro, y publicaciones vinculadas al mismo. En dicho año 2009 culminó el Proyecto de Investigación financiado por el Ministerio de Educación y Ciencia y Fondo Europeo de Desarrollo Regional (FEDER), con la referencia HUM2006-03160/HIST, vinculado al Centro Alfonso IX. Por otra parte, se iniciará, a principios de 2010, el desarrollo de un nuevo Proyecto de Investigación del Ministerio de Ciencia e Innovación (referencia HAR2009-06937), también adscrito al Centro Alfonso IX. Ambas circunstancias han contribuido a hacer posible esta publicación.
