Changing Media, Homes and Households Deborah Chambers, 2016-04-14 Media technologies have played a central role in shaping ideas about home life over the last two centuries. Changing Media, Homes and Households explores the complex relationship between home, householders, families and media technologies by charting the evolution of the media-rich home, from the early twentieth century to the present. Moving beyond a narrow focus on media texts, production and audiences, Deborah Chambers investigates the physical presence of media objects in the home and their symbolic importance for home life. The book identifies the role of home-based media in altering relationships between home, leisure, work and the outside world in the context of entertainment, communication and work. It assesses whether domestic media are transforming or reinforcing traditional identities and relations of gender, generation, class and migrancy. Mediatisation theory is employed to assess the domestication of media and media saturation of home life in the context of wider global changes. The author also develops the concept of media imaginaries to explain the role of public discourses in shaping changing meanings, values and uses of domestic media. Framed within these approaches, four chapters also provide in-depth case studies of the processes involved in media's home adoption: early television design, family-centred video gaming, the domestication of tablet computers, and the shift from smart homes to today's connected homes. This is an ideal text for students and researchers interested in media and cultural studies, communication, and sociology.

The New Technology Elite Vinnie Mirchandani,2012-02-28 How-to guidance for optimizing incumbent technologies to deliver a better product and gain competitive advantage Their zip codes are far from Silicon Valley. Their SIC codes show retail, automobile or banking. But industry after industry is waking up to the opportunity of smart products and services for their increasingly tech-savvy customers. Traditionally technology buyers, they are learning to embed technology in their products and become technology vendors. In turn, if you analyze Apple, Google, Amazon, Facebook, Twitter and eBay, you marvel at their data centers, retail stores, application ecosystems, global supply chains, design shops. They are considered consumer tech but have better technology at larger scale than most enterprises. The old delineation of technology buyer and vendor is obsolete. There is a new definition for the technology elite - and you find them across industries and geographies. The 17 case studies and 4 guest columns spread through The New Technology Elite bring out the elite attributes in detail. Every organization will increasingly be benchmarked against these elite - and soon will be competing against them. Contrasts the productivity that Apple, Google and others have demonstrated in the last decade to that of the average enterprise technology group Reveals how to leverage what companies have learned from Google, Apple, Amazon.com, and Facebook to your company's advantage Designed for business practitioners, CEOs, CFOs, CIOs, technology vendors, venture capitalists, IT consultants, marketing executives, and policy makers Other titles by Vinnie Mirchandani: The New Polymath: Profiles in Compound-Technology Innovations If you're looking to encourage technology innovation, look no further. The New Technology Elite provides the building blocks your company needs to become innovative through incumbent technologies.

Media Law in Croatia Hrvoje Lisić,Marko Turudić ?,2019-02-08 Derived from the renowned multi-volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws, this analysis of media law in Croatia surveys the massively altered and enlarged legal landscape traditionally encompassed in laws pertaining to freedom of expression and regulation of communications. Everywhere, a shift from mass media to mass self-communication has put enormous pressure on traditional law models. An introduction describing the main actors and salient aspects of media markets is followed by in-depth analyses of print media, radio and television broadcasting, the Internet, commercial communications, political advertising, concentration in media markets, and media regulation. Among the topics that arise for discussion are privacy, cultural policy, protection of minors, competition policy, access to digital gateways, protection of journalists' sources, standardization and interoperability, and liability of intermediaries. Relevant case law is considered throughout, as are various ethical codes. A clear, comprehensive overview of media legislation, case law, and doctrine, presented from the practitioner's point of view, this book is a valuable time-saving resource for all concerned with media and communication freedom. Lawyers representing parties with interests in Croatia will welcome this very useful guide, and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative media law.

Media morgen Jo Caudron,2012-10-25 Zijn tv, radio, kranten en magazines ten dode opgeschreven? Verbaast het je dat de businessmodellen van de klassieke media op de helling staan? Het commerciële verhaal van televisie, kranten, magazines en radio dat al zo lang bestaat, valt steeds meer uit elkaar. Maar hoe komt dat? Jij en ik gedragen ons als consumenten vandaag zoveel anders. Dankzij technologie nemen we de controle over hoe, wanneer en welke media we consumeren. Bovendien zijn we verbonden met elkaar. Ons sociaal netwerk houdt ons op de hoogte van het nieuws, kondigt nieuwe producten aan en vertelt of ze de moeite waard zijn. Meer nog, we gaan al die kennis mobiel gebruiken via tablets en smartphones. Weten de mediabedrijven hoe ze hiermee moeten omgaan? Neen. Steken vele media hun kop in het zand? Ja. Hoe moeten de mediaspelers zich organiseren om succesvol te blijven? En hoe vermijden ze dat ze ingehaald worden door internationale uitdagers die op de loer liggen? In Media Morgen neemt Jo Caudron je mee naar de toekomst van de media. Ondanks hun sterke troeven van vandaag, moeten ze net als adverteerders en marketeers hun aanpak afstemmen op de vernieuwde technologie en de vernieuwde consument. Ontdek de weg naar die grote uitdagingen!
