Real Estate with Joy Earls,2022-07-31 Everyone, at some point, finds themselves navigating the murky waters of real estate. Whether you are a buyer jumping into your first purchase, a seller parting with the family home, or a renter moving to a new town, you will always be faced with hard decisions. The hype surrounding the real estate market doesn't make that any easier. Who can relax when they're making, as some say, the most expensive purchase of their lives? So where do you begin? Why not here? Over the years, broker Joy Earls has gathered valuable lessons about her profession from friends, family, and professionals, and from her own experiences starting in 1980 when Earls bought her first house in Montana. As you read and relax, you'll absorb the indispensable experiences and advice in Real Estate with Joy. And soon you'll find yourself turning to, 'I need to thinkidover first' or 'Not the rabbit ears!' when you need advice.

The Missoula Mercantile: The Store that Ran an Empire Minie Smith,2012-09-04 From its log cabin beginnings at a dusty crossroads in Montana Territory, the Missoula Mercantile grew to become the largest department store between Minneapolis and Seattle. Under the guidance of A.B. Hammond and C.H. McLeod and their policy of community involvement and customer satisfaction, the Merc became a household word in Montana, synonymous with square dealing. Join historian Minie Smith as she traces the story of a western institution, remembering everything from the Missoula Mercantile's hardware department, with its creaky wooden floors and drawers of nuts and bolts, to its ladies' apparel department, which offered a taste of the big city with silks, satins and velveteens. From horseshoes to hosiery, the Merc had what customers needed and knew what they wanted.
