Imperial Japan and National Identities in Asia, 1895-1945 Robert Cribb,Narangoa Li,2020-08-26 Between 1895 and 1945, Japan was heavily engaged in other parts of Asia, first in neighbouring Korea and northeast Asia, later in southern China and Southeast Asia. During this period Japanese ideas on the nature of national identities in Asia changed dramatically. At first Japan discounted the significance of nationalism, but in time Japanese authorities came to see Asian nationalisms as potential allies, especially if they could be shaped to follow Japanese patterns. At the same time, the ways in which other Asians thought of Japan also changed. Initially many Asians saw Japan as a useful but distant model, but with the rise of Japanese political power, this distant admiration turned into both cooperation and resistance. This volume includes chapters on India, Tibet, Siberia, Mongolia, Korea, Manchukuo, China, Taiwan, Vietnam, Thailand, the Philippines and Indonesia.

Sales of Sensitive Military Property to the Public Gregory D. Kutz,2008

Each year the DoD sells millions of dollars worth of excess property through the Internet. Before excess property can be sold, it is DoD policy to screen the property to ensure it cannot be reutilized by the dept. in another location or that its sale would not result in sensitive mil. property becoming publicly available. Management control breakdowns in DoD's excess property reutilization program resulted in the sale of sensitive mil.

property to the public through the Web site. Given the seriousness of the security risk posed by the sale of sensitive mil. property to the public, Congress requested this invest. into whether: sensitive property was still being sold on the Internet; & whether DoD has taken steps to prevent further improper sales of sensitive items.
