A Cup of Coffee with My Dentist Randy Van Ittersum,Peter Fuentes D M D,Patricia Wu D M D,2015-06-27 Dentists get a bad rap. Even though the dentist is often the first responder in the battle for a patient's healthy body, we sometimes fall prey to the fear that continues to circulate around this group of professionals sparked by long-ago stories about bad dental chair experiences. This book, A Cup of Coffee with My Dentist, hopes to change that-at least for a few dentists, anyway. The dentists whose stories reside within the covers of this book want you to know and understand them better as human beings and, as a bonus, they will teach you more about your teeth than you ever knew was possible.* What is sedation dentistry, and are you a candidate?* Why not just pull that broken molar? Do you really need it?* Are dental implants right for you?* How long should I expect my natural teeth to last? (Can you spell f-o-r-e-v-e-r?)A Cup of Coffee with My Dentist will introduce some of the dedicated individuals who devote their days to caring for your mouth and, in so doing, make the rest of your body function the way it was meant to. You'll learn about their backgrounds, what inspires them, the fuel that drives them, and the reason that drive seems unquenchable.

My Dentist and Me Renay L. Ivens, 2022-11-03 I chose the title My Dentist and Me to inform children everywhere that their dentist is a friend and not a foe. Each dental visit should be a positive and welcoming experience, in addition to being educational as well as FUN!!! Having a trusting and caring relationship between a child and their healthcare provider makes the difference between having a lifetime of good oral health or neglect. Jesus not only welcomes children into His presence, but He also blesses each one. And he took the children into his arms, placed his hands on them and blessed them. (vv.13-14,16) Each child is a gift from God and I am thankful to have been blessed with the opportunity to serve and befriend them. It is my hope that every little person will leave their dental appointment saying I LOVE MY DENTIST and MY DENTIST LOVES ME! Jesus Loves the Little Children words by C. Herbert Woolston, music by George Root.
