My Idea of Fun Will Self,2012-09-11 When the young Ian Wharton first meets Mr Broadhurst, he is completely unaware of the influence he will come to exert over his life as 'The Fat Controller' - a constant companion and confidant and also the obese, erudite manifestation of Ian's mental illness. As Ian's idea of fun becomes increasingly extreme, the reader is taken to a place where morality is eroded by the dull grind of modernity and everything becomes admissible.

Not My Idea Bethany Swafford,2023-06-26 “Lucas, you must return home.” These enigmatic words are all the preparation young Lucas Bywood receives when he is summoned home early from his Grand Tour. He little expects the tangle of obligations that ensnares him from the moment he sets foot on the family estate. His best friend caught up in gambling debts, his father forcing him into an arranged marriage with a young woman he dislikes and who is in love with another, and his mother struggling to recover from a suspicious riding accident... Faced with pressure from all sides, Lucas wants nothing more than to turn around and escape back to the continent. However, he cannot leave without solving the mystery of his mother’s accident. Finding the answer will take more than his usual stubbornness, and Lucas soon finds himself out of his depth. What is a young man to do when everything that can go wrong seems determined to do so?

My Idea of Education Tejal Choksi,2023-02-23 My Idea of Education There always seems to be an underlying theme to what she knows. How does she know ?How much does she not know ?Knowing is important but it is more important to delve deeper into what is known. Nurturing is never subjected to nature although intertwined like a closed zip. So do cultures are never subjected to any groups.Everyone is born in one, adopts and learns, grows; creating a version of culture best suited to their perceptions and suitability in the path of living. Having said that, how does then Education become a source of work or burden yet a source of growth at the same time.This tandem of burdensomeness in growth is not my idea of education. So it is said and so it is it.Is it not a backward thought but a defined method that guarantees a fine learner. Creativity is the lost and found method with some forms that has stood the test of time. Making /spinning the Chakra and creating thread from it, creating pots ,dancing, yoga, art of breathing correctly, sculpting,sound and music; each of the speakers of one Idea, corrections and precisions. Likewise there may be more than a crazy range of art forms that exist in the world that which have been tried and tested are the most satisfying to the brim. This with great stories, few Adventures of the learners and risks and counters from time to time will ensure your forming of a warrior who knows the end before the war for the challenge begins. Such is the light of education that it powerfully restores peace and equality in mysterious ways one can Dwell upon and never be lost and hence my idea of education is sound knowledge,awareness and work ethics,artsy language and being in tandem with organic processes. The education we have had has been poignant of our times and the driving force of progress. Gone are those days and sadly the backstories of the education we learnt has been detrimental in mixing up thoughts craftily and cruelly. Education has to be the Rote learning for sound memorizing, practical learning for experience of thoughts of inference and challenge base for unseen and acceptance of various cultures,methods and Awareness of focus and speed and patience. It is imperative to understand the measured narrowness of showing restrictions of other cultures at the learners progress. Hence a very deep knowledge is always an honour of sorts.There is harmony in a pronounced way when one common ground of Education united lives. Hence when nothing seems to be working in the past educational system, Lo, behold! the language did that, played that part. That which was set to divide has United us all and that is the Education and its power that I want to see; truly unseen, invincible and omnipresent
