Life on the Road with the Master Wine Cellar Builder John Seitz, 2011-09-12 This book is about all the adventures that I have experienced in my journey to places where most people do not get to go. This is not just about all the stars and celebrities and their wine cellars but is about people, monuments, things, and places along the roads of this great country of ours. Wine cellars are a thing of beauty and a place of refuge. They have become more and more popular over the years. Some of the nation wine enthusiasts, including stars and celebrities, have had them built in their homes and restaurants I am the guy who built some of these wine cellars. I have been designing and constructing some of the most beautiful wine cellars in America for over 15 years. Today, I am considered by most, to be The Master Wine Cellar Builder in the U.S. My past clients consist of quite an A-List. Regis Philbin to Rusty Wallace to CEOs of major corporations, and restaurant chains like Ruths Chris Steakhouses. My way of doing things is not the ordinary way. Many years ago I packed up my entire business and converted the basement of an my RV into a rolling workshop, and hit the road. My company, The Magnum Company Inc, is completely 100% mobile, building wine cellars across the nation. I spend 365 days a year traveling back and forth across this country of ours, building wine cellars, camping in RV resorts, golfing, and of course drinking some of the finest wines. I am part nomad, part craftsman and 100% friendly, with a glass of wine for every stranger meet, in every campground I stay. Since about 1995, wine cellars, have become extremely popular on both the East and West Coasts and of course in the Midwest. My company is devoted exclusively to the design, consultation, and construction of custom wine cellars. Its a true adventure! You will learn the proper way to store your wines. The drama that surrounds some of the wine cellar installs. What happens to us if The Wine Cellar RV has to go to the shop. But in the end, you will see some of Americas great wine cellars. Get a great tip on some of the worlds finest wines. Along with good food, good wine, good stories and amazing craftsmanship and construction for some of the countrys biggest wine enthusiast! Who knows you might even meet a star or two along the way. I choose to live anywhere The Wine Cellar RV will take me. I could be eating lunch in Manhattan with a friend or building a wine cellar for a star or celebrity across the country, seeing more of the country in a month than most people might see in a lifetime. Sit back, relax, and enjoy your visit through the United States.

Bacchus and Me Jay McInerney, 2002-03-12 Jay McInerney on wine? Yes, Jay McInerney on wine! The best-selling novelist has turned his command of language and flair for metaphor on the world of wine, providing this sublime collection of untraditional musings on wine and wine culture that is as fit for someone looking for "a nice Chardonnay" as it is for the oenophile. On champagne: "Is Dom Pérignon worth four bottles of Mo't & Chandon? If you are a connoisseur, a lover, a snob, or the owner of a large oceangoing craft, the answer . . . is probably yes." On the difficulty of picking a wine for a vegetarian meal: "Like boys and girls locked away in same-sex prep schools, most wines yearn for a bit of flesh." On telling the difference between Burgundy and Bordeaux: "If it's red, French, costs too much, and tastes like the water that's left in the vase after the flowers have died, it's probably Burgundy." On the fungus responsible for the heavenly flavor of the dessert wine called Sauternes: "Not since Baudelaire smoked opium has corruption resulted in such beauty." Includes new material plus recommendations on the world's most romantic wines and the best wines to pair with a meal

A Hedonist in the Cellar Jay McInerney, 2012-05-01 _____ 'McInerney's wine judgements are sound, his anecdotes witty, and his literary references impeccable. Edwin's Cellar (full Color) Edwin Guillot, 2016-09-25 This book is for wine lovers who want to learn and appreciate the art of matching fine wines with appropriate foods. I believe that wine is made to accompany food, and that each enhances the other. This book is a guide to this process of quickly finding the right food match for a given wine. In the first part of the book wines and foods are grouped according to similarities, providing a convenient, methodical way to consistently achieve winning wine-food pairings. Pitfalls to avoid are also addressed. In the second part of the book, over 100 wines are examined and can't miss wine-food experiences are presented to the reader. The recipes given here include an assortment of Bistro dishes and Cuisine Bourgeoise, some Classical Haute Cuisine dishes, as well as many contemporary dishes from the world of Nouvelle Cuisine. The dishes were selected because I felt they accentuated the best qualities of each particular wine. I have attempted to select the dishes that I feel bring out, or magnify, those qualities in fine wines that are sought by wine lovers. The recipes listed here cover the gamut from Escoffier to Emeril. Many of the recipes in this book also include suggested appropriate vegetarian substitutes for the meat courses in some of these classic gourmet dishes. Low-fat versions of each recipe are also addressed. My goal was to have vegetable dishes and low-fat dishes that closely approximated the look and taste of the original dish as much as possible, so that the presentation of the dish at the table and the feel of the dish in the mouth would not change the wine/food experience, adhering to the goal of enhancing the taste of each wine just as much as the original dish did. So, no matter what your dietary slants, you should be able to enjoy these famous wines with the appropriate foods to enhance the wine-food experience. Gluten-free substitutes are also listed when appropriate, for those interested. When possible, for those interested, low-sugar/low-carbohydrate substitutes for some of the dishes are also prescribed, and low-alcohol wine substitutes are proposed. Do you want to match that special rare bottle of wine with a can't miss food dish? Do you enjoy cooking elaborate gourmet 3-star Michelin meals and have, or plan to stock your cellar with, the wines to properly accompany them? Or maybe you just enjoy having an everyday supermarket wine and want to serve it with the most compatible dishes for maximum enjoyment of these wines. The purpose of this book is to familiarize the reader with the different types of wines and the methodology used to match each of these wines with compatible foods.

A Vineyard in My Glass Gerald Asher, 2011-08-02 "Gerald Asher brought to Gourmet the magazine's most literate, scholarly, and civilized column. For a balanced view, a true feel for wine's values, he has no peer. And he is always a joy to read."—Hugh Johnson, author of A Life Uncorked and The World Atlas of Wine Gerald Asher is amongst the most erudite men I know. With an exceptional palate, he appreciates wines of great elegance, subtlety, and finesse, and his writings capture the essence of many fine wines.—Christian Moueix, Etablissements Jean-Pierre Moueix "Wine can occasionally be silken textured, as can its prose, especially in Gerald Asher's hands. He is the Maestro, the Doyen, and my inspiration since the 1970s."—John Livingstone-Learmonth, author of The Wines of the Northern Rhône Gerald Asher's eye for telling detail makes for addictively readable prose—Terry Theise, author of Reading between the Wines "When it comes to style as well as substance, no one writing about wine in the English language comes close to Gerald Asher. These articles from Gourmet magazine are as fresh and informative as they were when initially published. A Vineyard in My Glass deserves a place on every wine lover's bookshelf."—Steve Heimoff, author of A Wine Journey Along the Russian River In a wine world that is obsessed with points and descriptors, Gerald Asher's writing is utterly refreshing. No matter his topic, he reminds us that the most interesting things about wine are the place it comes from and the people who make it.—Carole Meredith, Professor Emerita of Enology, UC Davis

Life's Too Short to Drink Bad Wine Len Evans, 2015-03-09 'Wine is a good, familiar creature and once bitten, that's it.' Len Evans was bitten early and that was it. He remained an enthusiastically successful promoter of the 'good, familiar creature' until his untimely death in 2006. But after almost half a century of a life in wine, he wasn't keen on getting into the autobiography business. 'I was asked to write my memoirs,' he said in 1985, 'but I didn't like the idea – for one reason I'm still living them, and for another, my many conceits do not include a belief that my life has been particularly fascinating.' Well, he didn't write his memoirs but he left us something else that is uniquely Evans – an anecdotal ramble through a life devoted to the production, promotion – and drinking! – of wine. There are occasional detours to paint a picture of an old mate, tell a wise or hilarious wine tale, or just spin a good yarn. And there was many a yarn garnered in the new Welsh migrant's progress from ring-barking trees in the bush to washing glasses in a pub, writing comedy sketches and embarking on a career-changing role in a major hotel before becoming established as a restaurateur, vigneron and ultimately – almost inevitably – as Australia's most influential wine personality. In 1979, Len wrote of a friend's book, 'It's a funny book, it's a serious book. It contains something for every wine lover.' Few words could better describe what he has left us in Life's Too Short to Drink Bad Wine. Praise for Len Evans 'There was, and will only ever be, one Don Bradman – and only one Len Evans AO, OBE.' – James Halliday '[Len Evans is] the finest judge of wine I know.' – Hugh Johnson 'Len Evans has done more to advance the cause of Australian wine than any other individual.' – The Oxford Companion to Wine

Stalin's Wine Cellar John Baker, Nick Place, 2021-07-20 The adventure of a lifetime to buy Stalin's secret multimillion dollar wine cellar located in Georgia; it is the Raiders of the Lost Ark of wine. In the late 1990s, John Baker was known as a purveyor of quality rare and old wines. He was the perfect person for an occasional business partner to approach with a mysterious wine list that was different to anything John, or his second-in-command, Kevin Hopko, had ever come across. The list was discovered to be a comprehensive catalogue of the wine collection of Nicholas II, the last Tsar of Russia. The wine had become the property of the state after the Russian Revolution of 1918, during which Nicholas and his entire family were executed. Now owned by Stalin, the wine was discreetly removed to a remote Georgian winery when Stalin was concerned the advancing Nazi army might overrun Russia. Half a century later, the wine was rumoured to be hidden underground and off any known map. John and Kevin embarked on an audacious, colourful and potentially dangerous journey to Georgia to discover if the wines actually existed; if the bottles were authentic and whether the entire collection could be bought and transported to a major London auction house for sale. Stalin's Wine Cellar is a wild, sometimes rough ride through the glamorous world of high-end wine.
