Canadians and the Natural Environment to the Twenty-first Century Neil Stevens Forkey,2012-01-01 Canadians and the Natural Environment to the Twenty-First Century provides an ideal foundation for undergraduates and general readers on the history of Canada's complex environmental issues. Through clear, easy-to-understand case studies, Neil Forkey integrates the ongoing interplay of humans and the natural world into national, continental, and global contexts. Forkey's engaging survey addresses significant episodes from across the country over the past four hundred years: the classification of Canada's environments by its earliest inhabitants, the relationship between science and sentiment in the Victorian era, the shift towards conservation and preservation of resources in the early twentieth century, and the rise of environmentalism and issues involving First Nations at the end of the century. Canadians and the Natural Environment to the Twenty-First Century provides an accessible synthesis of the most important recent work in the field, making it a truly state-of-the-art contribution to Canadian environmental history.

Le Transport Scolaire au Canada, 1987 Le transport scolaire est devenu l'un des services importants que dispensent les conseils scolaires, car ils le dispensent, que ce soit à quelques élèves ou à des milliers d'élèves. Cet ouvrage porte sur le transport scolaire au Canada et se divise en trois parties : la première donne un aperçu à l'échelle du Canada, des réponses reçues et récapitule les résultats. La deuxième examine brièvement, province par province, le financement, les textes de lois principaux et les plans concernant le transport scolaire. La dernière partie décrit la situation dans les 158 commissions scolaires qui ont rempli le questionnaire. Cette partie traite surtout de l'admissibilité des élèves, des lignes de conduite de la commission scolaire, des moyens de transport utilisés, du budget et du personnel dévolu au transport. Même si on s'est efforcé de toujours présenter les données de la commissions scolaires n'ayant pas répondu à toutes les questions. même façon, dans certains cas, cela n'a pas été possible, quelques commissions scolaires n'ayant pas répondu à toutes les questions.
