The Double Fortune Bertha Ladd Hoskins,1909

On a Side Note Curtis A Cooper,2020-06-14 Stacy Shazia recently moved into a new apartment in the small town of Earlville in central New York. She visits a local flea market with her best friend, Peggy, in search for an antique desk. She strikes gold when she finds one that's over two hundred years old and feels the five-hundred-dollar price tag is well below the value of the furniture.While cleaning the desk, Stacy manages to remove a small drawer that was stuck. Stuffed behind the drawer is a note from a previous owner. She thinks the love letter might lead to the origin of the desk, so she visits a local antique store to assess the real value of the piece and determine the age of the note.With the help of Steve Archer, one of the antique store's proprietors, she embarks on a journey to find the desk's last owner and the recipient of the letter. What started out as a rocky partnership quickly changes into something more. What other surprises are in store for the two as they search for the author of the note?
