Sometimes I Paint Cecil Moody, 2012 To paint one's life would be impossible. To paint a vision of a past, and of a present time, can be done by anyone; even if it is only a point, a spot, a moment, a fragment of one's life, a memory painted on the format of a reverie. A reverie is usually considered to be a happy daydream of a memory. However, in one's subconscious bank of memories, there lie mountains and valleys of pictures both wonderfully happy as well as some that are quite sad.....even some that are excruciatingly painful. On paper or canvas, one can choose which pictures to paint. In sleeping dreams and in daydreams, one has no choice in the selection of subjects which come brushing across one's mind. I wish to dedicate this little book of my paintings to my family and friends who have appreciated my efforts, even if they might not have enjoyed viewing them, and especially to my son-in-law, Chris, who has been constant in his encouragement of my continued efforts to paint.

Friends and Gems Paint Bonnie McPhail, 2016-01-16 To my dear sisters and cherished friends, We as women get so busy! We go to work, take care of our children and husbands, and do all the errands to keep the house running. On and on it goes. We see our friends at church, in passing, or at the grocery store, and always comment on how we should get together- but then we don't. And we say the same thing the next time we see them. Does this sound familiar? Friends and Gems Paint is a wonderful combination of spiritual lessons (gems) and an actual painting lesson. This is the sixth book in the Friends and Gems series; it is designed to be used by women either in a small-group setting or alone in your own personal quiet time. The course includes simple step-by-step instructions and to create the beautiful acrylic painting featured on the cover. Step by step photographs are included. I wanted to make this not only a painting tutorial but a relaxing time of peace and inner reflection. So I have included stories, poetry, simple bible lessons, scriptures and places for you to record your thoughts while you work on your project either alone or in a group. Along the way, you will learn life changing spiritual truths that you can apply to your own life, all while spending time with your friends. Sound like fun? Let's get started!
