Not So Silent Muffie Jahnett Martin,2014-10-13 My name is Muffin, Muffie for short, and I am a Maltese/Chihuahua mix who has been adopted by a human Mom. I live in a small community where I am relatively respected and nurtured. I decided to write a book that explains a little of how we, that is, four-legged individuals, relate in the human world. The majority of humans in this society really misunderstand us and it is about time that we speak up and be heard. I expect to see people paying more attention to animals once they have read my book, especially parents teaching their children about pets. The following points is how I see my book contributing to the "enlightenment" of the human owners of pets. • The purpose of our lives in your lives. • The intuitive power of pets. • The wisdom of pets and their silent communication. • The healing power of pets. • How we pets bring joy and well-being to the world. • Pets help energy to flow freely through giving love. I am of the firm belief that Humans need to be "enlightened" on how to relate to us in the animal kingdom.

Live Toys; Or Anecdotes of Our Four-legged and Other Pets Emma Davenport,1862

Indoor Cat Laura J. Moss,Lynn Bahr,2022-04-05 Can an indoor cat live a happy, stimulating, and active life? A veterinarian and a journalist answer this question with a resounding yes, and offer real-life guidance for opening up your cat's world, even if they stay within the confines of your home. There are many myths our culture perpetuates about domestic cats: they live longer indoors, sleep all day, are easy and low-maintenance pets, and can't be trained. Even the most well-meaning kitty caregiver will be surprised to learn that these long-held beliefs aren't necessarily based on facts, but instead reflect the many ways we have adapted our feline friends to our indoor, domesticated lifestyles. Indoor Cat, by Laura J. Moss, journalist and founder of Adventure Cats, and Lynn Bahr, a feline-only veterinarian, explores how to help cat owners understand a cat's perspective of their indoor homes, with practical ways to enhance cats' lives to the fullest and combat countless health and behavioral problems that result from indoor living, as well as raising the question: should every cat live exclusively indoors? Together with scientific studies, expert opinions from vets and behaviorists, and firsthand accounts and interviews, this informative and engaging full-color guide strives to reach compassionate cat owners looking for new ways to care for and connect with their feline companions.

There Are No Sad Dogs In Heaven Sonya Fitzpatrick,2013-09-02 "[She] has the magic ingredients for a hit: pets, paranormal chats, and a sense of humor about it all. Yes, I'm hooked."—New York Post "If you think that psychic readings are just for human beings, then you thought wrong. Sonya Fitzpatrick, an English-born animal lover, not only psychically communicates with pets, but explains to their often frustrated owners just what's bothering them."—CBS News For many of us, a pet is a part of our family; for some, they may be our only children. While all parents expect their children to outlive them, unfortunately, we can't expect the same from our pets. And, just like losing a family member, losing a pet causes grief and loss. They've been with us for years, some for decades, providing unconditional love, companionship and a sense of purpose. When they're gone, most of all, we want to know that our furry, feathered, or scaled friends are happy—wherever they are. For years, animal communicator Sonya Fitzpatrick has helped pet owners cope with the loss of their beloved companions; time and again she hears the same questions: Is my pet happy? Is it okay to get another pet? Using her personal experiences as well as the stories of the families she’s worked with, Sonya sheds light on the questions that every grieving pet owner has, and assures the reader that there are, in fact, no sad dogs (or cats or birds or turtles or horses or cows) in heaven.

Do Unto Animals Tracey Stewart,2015-10-20 #1 New York Times bestseller and USA Today bestseller The more we know about the animals in our world and the better we care for them, the better our lives will be. Former veterinary technician and animal advocate Tracey Stewart understands this better than most—and she’s on a mission to change how we interact with animals. Through hundreds of charming illustrations, a few homemade projects, and her humorous, knowledgeable voice, Stewart provides insight into the secret lives of animals and the kindest ways to live with and alongside them. At home, she shows readers how to speak “dog-ese” and “cat-ese” and how to “virtually adopt” an animal. In the backyard, we learn about building bee houses, dealing nicely with pesky moles, and creative ways to bird-watch. And on the farm, Stewart teaches us what we can do to help all farm animals lead a better life (and reveals pigs’ superpowers!). Part practical guide, part memoir of her life with animals, and part testament to the power of giving back, Do Unto Animals is a gift for animal lovers of all stripes.
