I Never Met a Dog I Didn't Like: Miranda McAdams, 2014-04 This book details the true stories of the author's and her husband's many dogs and cats--from Lizzie, who loved to be dressed up as a witch and give out Halloween treats--to Lucky, whose life was saved just in time--to Anton, who survived distemper, a disease that kills many dogs and cats. All of the animals featured in this book came from animal rescue groups and shelters, with most of them coming from out-of-state kill shelters. For the most part, these animals had problematic behaviors, and were adults, except for the two puppies, Lucky and Anton. Some of these animals growled as their main form of communication to both humans and dogs alike and many of the male dogs marked or were incontinent indoors. Most of the animals needed obedience and leash training, and some dogs exhibited aggression over food, toys, and space. The growling, marking, lack of obedience to basic commands, absence of leash training, and aggressive tendencies all had made these otherwise good-natured animals unattractive to potential and first-time adopters. Another issue that surfaced was the fact that black animals are often overlooked or even avoided by adopters. The chapter, entitled Ashley, the Black Dog, addresses this unfortunate and widespread prejudice toward black dogs and cats. The author found that it was extremely rewarding to adopt rescue dogs. Although they were difficult at times, she found them to be interesting, challenging, and loveable. She also felt that they had taught her a lot about how to handle dogs with their particular problems. The author also loved adopting the less complicated dogs--the ones who just eat, play, sleep, and lick your hand--like Ashley, Lucky, Pooky, and Gumby. These dogs may not have been the most intelligent dogs, but because of their gentle natures, they got along well with, and balanced out, the author's more difficult and aggressive dogs.

And sometimes, the presence of dogs and cats in our lives can do even more. In these delightful books, Callie Smith Grant collects stories that celebrate the dogs and cats in our

A Special Love Hate Relationship Between Snowbell and Daisy Jacqueline Mary Masciotti,2013-06-27 This is an informative and educational book about the appreciation and understanding of animals and their individual characteristics and personalities. Its about an animated animal dialogue between a cat and a dog who have a love, hate relationship between each other. It is said that a dog is a mans best friend and of course a cat is more self governing and has a different character. Well when the cat, Snowbells best friend Jack the dog passes away and has gone to animal kingdom, Snowbell feels a great loss and very sad, I guess an empty feeling; - Dedication and Loyalty are families who have lost their best friend the family pet - Perseverance are families who wanted to have a family pet as a best friend - Devotion and admiration who are willing to care for their pet and love their best friend Some passages also relate to the human side of Hate and Love Relationships. Animals such as these two or more personalities. In this book have a rare Love Hate Relationship, they are full of fun and yet at the same time spiteful in their own distinctive animal worlds. Its a book I hope you will enjoy and keep you amused however/ sometimes there are heartbreaking moments. The animated animal characteristics in this book are based on factual real incidents but the breed of these animal characters are fabricated and diverse. The period takes time over two years when two diverse characters - Snowbell the cat meets Daisy the puppy. Research has been conducted in learning about the different animals such as cats and dogs, and of course the author has had the opportunity and experience in owning her lovely dedicated dog called Pipa her best friend. I hope you will enjoy the dialogue of all these characters.
