Change and Effectiveness in Schools Gretchen B.

Rossman, 1988-01-01 The quest for more effective schools has perhaps never been more challenging than it is today. Here, the authors consider and investigate that challenge from the cultural perspective.

Scars, Marks & Tattoos Jacqueline Caruso, 2021-03-31 I have physical scars from past surgeries, however, I have emotional scars as well. They were buried deep inside (hidden). It wasn't until my mother died was I able to catch my breath and to make sense of or process the emotional pain I had endured due to her prescription drug addiction, resulting in my own addictions.

The Any Person Mindset Dan Coughlin, 2020-08-10 All employees from those in the executive suite to the front line are accountable to themselves for their results, behaviors, and relationships. Toss out the 80/20 mentality, where 20% of the people produce 80% of the results. This archaic approach has created both massive employee disengagement and entitlement. To thrive in business today, you need the 80 + 20 mindset, where 100% of the results are produced by 100% of the employees. This is a book about optimizing your performance, and the performance of your employees. The Any Person Mindset says any person can make a significant difference in an organization, but no one is born with the necessary traits. These are learned thinking traits. It takes intentional focus and effort to make the impact you are capable of making. This book is a map and Dan Coughlin and Lee Renz are your guides for making the difference you can make in your work. On this journey you will clarify your purpose at work and the career you want, understand your Assets for Significance and how to apply them, consider how you think and the impact on your emotions, see the Assets for Significance in other people, and focus on building effective teams and leading them to sustainable improvement in key results.

Mystics and Zen Masters Thomas Merton, 1999-11-29 Thomas Merton was recognized as one of those rare Western minds that are entirely at home with the Zen experience. In this collection, he discusses diverse religious concepts-early monasticism, Russian Orthodox spirituality, the Shakers, and Zen Buddhism-with characteristic Western directness. Merton not only studied these religions from the outside but grasped them by empathy and living participation from within. All these studies, wrote Merton, are united by one central concern: to understand various ways in which men of different traditions have conceived the meaning and method of the 'way' which leads to the highest levels of religious or of metaphysical awareness.

Dropouts From Schools Lois Weis, Eleanor Farrar, Hugh G.

Petrie,1989-11-01 The authors examine the major groups within the dropout population, the myriad of factors within schools that lead to dropping out, and the larger social and economic context within which dropping out occurs. The resulting synthesis of knowledge and perspectives provided here will enhance our understanding of an important topic that has, to this time, been given too little attention.

Wonders of New York Alessandra Mattanza, 2012-04-26 New York is like an infinite onion that you discover layer after layer, never tiring of peeling. You get to know it step by step, enchanted by its colours, its light, the sunsets and sunrises, by the ever-changing colour of the sky, as mutable as the wind. In the shadow of its breathtakingly tall skyscrapers, its buildings, its townhouses, as you hurry from one of the varied shop windows to the next. In its elegance and glamour, the formality of its museums, great temples of culture, in the magic of evocative moments and glimpses of street life. Indeed, New York does not actually exist, because there is not only one New York City, but ten, one thousand, one hundred thousand cities within the city, all jostling and intersecting each other, all connected to each other, in a melting pot of people, traditions and cultures that take you on a journey to every part of the world. This latest addition to the successful CubeBook Collection is dedicated to the discovery of this multifaceted city that is in a state of continuous transformation. Not Enough Rings Veronica Vera, Oliver Bareham, 2013-12-20

Not Enough Rings pokes fun at the foibles and frustrations of the 16-bit Sonic the Hedgehog games, one act at a time. No sprite recolors, no tribal Echidna warriors, definitely no werehogs -- just a real comic interpretation of the games we grew up playing. This book collects the entire 93-strip series.

The Exphoria Code Antony Johnston, 2020-10-06 Award-winning and bestselling author Antony Johnston introduces a major new techno-thriller series featuring an MI6 cyber-espionage specialist. Brigitte Sharp is a brilliant but haunted young MI6 hacker who has been deskbound and in therapy for three years after her first field mission in Syria went disastrously wrong. Despite her boss's encouragement, Bridge isn't ready to go back in the field. But now one of her best friends has been murdered, and Bridge believes his death is connected to strange "ASCII art" posts appearing on the internet that carry encrypted hidden messages. On decoding the messages, she discovers evidence of a mole inside a top-secret Anglo-French military drone project—an enemy who may also be her friend's killer. Her MI6 bosses force her back into the field, sending her undercover in France to find and expose the mole. But the truth behind the Exphoria code is worse than anyone imagined, and soon Bridge is on the run, desperate and alone, as a terrorist plot unfolds and threatens everything she has left to live for. Drawing on cutting edge technology and modern global threats, Brigitte Sharp is a highly credible female spy in a truly original and contemporary story.
