Habitat Suitability Index Models Rebecca

Howard, Harold A. Kantrud, 1986 A review and synthesis of existing information were used to develop a model for evaluating wintering habitat quality for the northern pintail along the Gulf of Mexico. The model is scaled to produce an index of habitat suitability between 0 (unsuitable habitat) and 1 (optimum habitat). Habitat suitability indices are designed for use with the Habitat Evaluation Procedures previously developed by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

Cruise of the Pintail Fonville Winans, 2011-09-26 The journal of a young, ambitious Fonville Winans is reproduced in Cruise of the Pintail: A Journal, which layers the now legendary photographer's unique voice over his iconic photographic record of that journey. Fonville Winans sailed on his boat, The Pintail, during the summers of 1932 and 1934 to swamps, barrier islands, and reefs, from Grand Isle to New Orleans to the Atchafalaya, crafting his photographic skill and making friends. Now the photographer's words and images offer a fascinating inner look at Fonville and the world as he saw it.

Galon the Northern Pintail Duck Pam

Egbert, 2015-10-22 Galon the Northern Pintail Duck is the story about a duck who lives at a pond with all the animals from the pond, surrounding woods and the local farm. Through the stories Galon interacts with the animals and introduces you to each one of the characters in the book. Tadpole shows Galon his courage and Timmy the turtle teaches Galon to skip stones across the pond. Each animal in the book has his own character and walks through the stories with Galon giving him more insight into the current problem or experience he is tackling. The series of books has Galon traveling through various experiences and shows him, or the characters in the book, tackling modern problems the children of today are facing. The idea is to reach out to the 5 to 10 year olds and help them through the eyes of Galon. Galon the Northern Pintail Duck book has to do with Galon losing his parents before he was hatched and not having a family like the rest of the animals. He has to learn what a family really is. In this book many of the main characters around the pond are introduced to the book series. Each character has their own personality and you soon love the characters through the illustrations and story.

Wherever Samoans may pursue endeavors in this world, they will always remember the tides and aura of their beginning. From cities, skyscrapers and many countries afar, home remains unforgotten to Samoan. In the Pasifika circle and over yonder, there's a Samoan proverb that the Samoan people are well-versed in that goes, E lele le toloa ae ma'au I le vai. No matter where a gray duck flies, it will always return to its wetlands. Home.
