Mars P. Cattermole,2012-12-06 As I write this short preface, the red orb of Mars is high in the eastern sky, and is brighter than it has been for many years. Last night my telescope again revealed the strange polar hood which is a feature of the planet at this time in its cycle. Because of its current prominence in the night sky, it is a very appropriate time to bring together and reappraise what we know of Mars and look forward to the next wave of planetary exploration. The initial notion of writing a book about Mars is an exciting one; the practicalities involved in working through and completing the project are, however, more than a trifle exacting. The first problem I encountered was the sheer vastness of the library of information about Mars which now exists. The second was the natural extension of the first, that is, how best to analyse it and reach widely acceptable interpretations. I have tried to write the story of Mars in a logical and unbiased way, however, we all have our individual prejudices, and I would be less than truthful if I did not admit to personal bias here and there. With this in mind, I apologise to any authors who may feel either misinterpreted or less than adequately acknowledged. The project is now completed and has been superbly prepared by Chapman & Hall.

The Lost Valley Jennifer Scoullar,2019-11-19 A Tasmanian East of Eden The Lost Valley is a sweeping saga of ambition, betrayal and dangerous love. Hobart 1929 - Ten-year-old-twins, Tom and Harry Abbott, are orphaned by a tragedy that shocks Hobart society. They find sanctuary with their reclusive grandmother, growing up in the remote and rugged Binburra ranges – a place where kind-hearted Tom discovers a love of the wild, Harry nurses a growing resentment towards his brother and where the mountains hold secrets that will transform both their lives. The chaos of World War II divides the brothers, and their passion for two very different women fuels a deadly rivalry. Can Tom and Harry survive to heal their rift? And what will happen when Binburra finally reveals its astonishing secrets? From Tasmania’s highlands to the Battle of Britain, and all the way to the golden age of Hollywood, The Lost Valley is a lush family saga about two brothers whose fates are entwined with the land and the women they love. Jennifer Scoullar writes page-turning fiction about the land, people and wildlife that she loves. The Green Fuse John Harte,1993-01-01 A widely respected ecological scientist and activist draws on the poet's image and his own environmental research to demonstrate the many interconnections among the world's ecosystems. John Harte takes us from Alaskan salmon runs and the Florida everglades to South Pacific coral reefs and the bleak Tibetan plateau. The result is that rare book that bridges the cultures of science and art. Lyrical, vivid portraits of natural wonders and the threats to them are combined with precise scientific accounts of natural processes and their disturbances. The Green Fuse will show nonscientists the fascination of ecological detective work and renew scientists' love for the beauty of the world under their microscopes. Harte's stories illuminate, without sermonizing, the damage to natural systems brought about by technological hubris and calculated political ruthlessness. The green fuse symbolizes the basic unity behind natural diversity. But a fuse may also be the weak link in an overloaded system or the slow burning wick on an ecological bomb. As The Green Fuse reminds us, the energies that created human liberation from nature can also be those that lead to the human destruction of nature. Deep Creek Canyon Richard Wood,2013-02 Jack was beginning to think maybe he didn't want to know what was in the woods on the other side of the ditch, so he decided to see if he could scare it away. At Jack's feet was the egg-shaped, white quartz rock he had placed on the top of his cairn, so he picked it up and threw it high into the trees and listened to it crash through the branches to the ground. Jack didn't hear the sound of an animal trotting through the woods, just more silence. Either the animal had left again without Jack hearing it leave, or the rock was not enough to scare it away. Jack decided the best thing to do was to head back home, and he and Tawny turned to walk away. After only a couple steps, Jack heard something hit the ground behind him with a loud thud. He turned to see what it was, and there, lying on the ground about five feet away, was the quartz rock. After decades of hiking and mapping thousands of miles of trails, Jack had seen and heard many strange things. Most could be explained as Mother Nature just doing her thing; however, a few of them were just strange enough to stay with him forever. The strange, nonhuman howl. The rock returned from the trees by some unknown thing. Keith, the unusual man who kept showing up on the trail. The canyon that man told him about. Jack didn't know it yet, but everything he did and everywhere he went was leading him to that canyon. What will he find there? Why does Keith think it is so important? And maybe most importantly, what does Keith have to do with the mysterious creature Jack's been tracking?

The Kingdoms and the Elves of the Reaches Robert Stanek,2008 Three unlikely companions set out on a quest to reunite the divided peoples of Ruin Mist before evil envelopes it completely.

Daughter of Cain Robert Ziegler,2003 What happened during the missing years between the time of Adam and Eve and their expulsion from the Garden of Eden and the time of the great flood that destroyed the earth? According to scripture our beginnings took place in the desert's of ancient Iraqi. Although the legend described in this novel is fiction, it is based in part upon a biblical account of the book of Genesis, Follow Zarah, the main character, a women strange in appearance, thoroughly spellbinding with green eyes and stark black hair. Along with Libb, Odom and Eshau, Noab and other colorful characters as they spin a delightful and intriguing fictional tale of life, temptation, and adventure during the beginning era of Ur's civilization, the incredible beginnings of mankind. There has been found no written account of the first two thousand years of human history, Those who had been inspired of God communicated orally their knowledge to others, retained this knowledge and handed it down from father to son through successive generations, until finally it was recorded in the bible, ascribed to the books of Moses. This novel describes a civilization in the area of a city of great wealth, luxury, and vice: The ancient city of Babylon, its people and their moral collapse prior to the great flood of Noah that destroyed all the living. Is this generation, in the eyes of the Creator, a violent people, again on the brink of an economic collapse and moral ruin, doomed for destruction as has been foretold in scripture? Has the world reached its zenith of magnitude or perhaps surpassed it?
