Redemption Awaits: The Awakening Ralph Cole,2021-10-25 At the age of 18, after living a dysfunctional life in school and at home, James Wilfred Zamora now prepares to leave for college to live a whole different life. For his entire childhood, he was a high school thug who struggled to find meaning, into a person who tried to rebuild himself from his broken past. But then, as he begins his new journey, he was, once more, reliving his old, unhappy days. What will James find as he continues this journey? What will you, when at the brink of losing hope, do when you can't find answers to yourself? Together with his clinical psychologist Dr. Emma and his high school friend Mary Jane, witness how a certain redemption awaits ahead as he continues down the path to find meaning in life.

The Tiger Claw Shauna Singh Baldwin,2011-07-27 From the author of What the Body Remembers, an extraordinary story of love and espionage, cultural tension and displacement, inspired by the life of Noor Inayat Khan (code name “Madeleine”), who worked against the Occupation after the Nazi invasion of France. When Noor Khan’s father, a teacher of mystical Sufism, dies, Noor is forced to bow, along with her mother, sister and brother, to her uncle’s religious literalism and ideas on feminine propriety. While at the Sorbonne, Noor falls in love with Armand, a Jewish musician. Though her uncle forbids her to see him, they continue meeting in secret. When the Germans invade in 1940, Armand persuades Noor to leave him for her own safety. She flees with her family to England, but volunteers to serve in a special intelligence agency. She is trained as a radio operator for the group that, in Churchill’s words, will “set Europe ablaze” with acts of sabotage. She is then sent back to Occupied France. Unwavering courage is what Noor requires for her assignment and her deeply personal mission — to re-unite with Armand. As her talisman, she carries her grandmother’s gift, an heirloom tiger claw encased in gold. The novel opens in December 1943. Noor has been imprisoned. She begins writing in secret, tracing the events that led to her capture. When Germany surrenders in 1945, her brother Kabir begins his search through the chaos of Europe’s Displaced Persons camps to find her. In its portrayal of intolerance, The Tiger Claw eerily mirrors our own times, and progresses with moments of great beauty and white-knuckle tension towards a moving and astonishing denouement.

Smolder Sharon Ashwood,2022-12-27 A prince. A prisoner. The last embers of hope. Leena is a fae and a fire dancer, as wild as her mountain home. But war with the Shades has crushed her tribe, and she is forced to use her powers for her captors’ entertainment. She obeys to protect her family, until the Shades enslave her young brother in a nightmarish spell. Rich, arrogant, and devastatingly handsome, Morran is feared as an ally of the Shades. Known as the Phoenix Prince, he is a prisoner of a different kind, cursed to forget his bloodline's legacy of magic. His familiar is the firebird, but it has been stolen—along with his memories, his power, and his sanity. If Leena can heal the prince, she has a chance to rescue her brother—but it's been centuries since Morran was cursed. Can she find the key to warming his heart again? And once the Phoenix Prince is free, who says she'll be able to tame him?

The Prize in the Game Jo Walton,2004-05-16 When a friendly competition leads to the death of a beloved horse and incurs the wrath of the Horse Goddess, the kingdoms of the island of Tir Isarnagiri are doomed to suffer. As the goddess' curse chases them down the years, four friends destined for kingship-Conal, Emer, Darag, and Ferdia—are forced into conflict as their countries build towards war. Matters are complicated when Emer and Conal fall in love, and dream of escaping together from the machinations of their respective families. But Conal and Ferdia are rivals for the High Kingship of the island, and Conal cannot simply leave. The contest between them will lead to a visionary quest on a mountain sacred to the gods-and terrifying to men. Yet Emer faces an even greater struggle. For when war finally comes, Emer has two choices: perform her duty to the homeland to which she owes everything, or protect the one she loves and be branded a traitor forever. The path she takes will become the stuff of legend, and forever alter the destiny of Tir Isarnagiri. Set in the world of Jo Walton's previous novels, The King's Peace and The King's Name, this book takes us to a shining era of dark powers, legendary heroes and passionate loves—all of them ruled by the hand of Fate. At the Publisher's request, this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software (DRM) applied.

Marksmanship in the U.S. Army William K. Emerson,2004 Featuring hundreds of black-and-white illustrations of marksmanship medals, prizes, and badges, plus a special full-color section, this encyclopedia of U.S. Army shooting awards and training program rewards is a must-have for military historians and collectors. In Marksmanship in the U.S. Army, William K. Emerson details weapons training from the 1850s to the present, gathering this information for the first time in a single volume. Emerson highlights the philosophies behind army marksmanship and documents the awards, prizes, and badges bestowed upon the War Department's most elite shooters, artillerymen, and swordsmen.

Proficiency training discussed in this book includes the use of sabers, cannons, sea mines, bayonets, tank weapons, aerial gunnery, bombs, and other weapons. Emerson integrates discussion of the criteria, people, and rationale behind each award into this historical account. Emerson's emphasis on national rifle and pistol matches, the history of selected army and NRA trophies, and significant players in the army's weapons training development enhances the comprehensive appeal of the latest contribution to military history by this experienced author.

Make: Technology on Your Time Volume 25 Mark Frauenfelder, 2011-01-11 The first magazine devoted entirely to do-it-yourself technology projects presents its 25th quarterly edition for people who like to tweak, disassemble, recreate, and invent cool new uses for technology. MAKE Volume 25 is all about the Arduino Revolution! Give your gadgets a brain! Previously out of reach for the do-it-yourselfer, the tiny computers called microcontrollers are now so cheap and easy to use that anyone can make their stuff smart. With a microcontroller, your gadget can sense the environment, talk to the internet or other hardware, and make things happen in the real world by controlling motors, lights, or any electronic device. The Arduino is an easy-to-use microcontroller board -- it's like an R&D lab on your kitchen table for prototyping any gadget. We show you how to make one, and how to use Arduinos and other microcontrollers to make an automatic yogurt maker, a vintage Skype telephone, a gumball machine that recognizes your secret knock, and more. Plus, make a Helicopter Rocket, gourmet Sous Vide food cooker, Reverse Geocache treasure box, and many more fun DIY projects.

Force of the Spring David Thoveline, 2003-04-15 At one time Sugarbury was the place to be in the summer. People came from all over to enjoy a bustling boardwalk with amazing attractions and beautiful beaches. But then the Mayfair Theater was demolished and it precipitated a slow descent into hell for the resort. Now, buried below the vacant lot where the grand old movie palace once stood, there is a terrible secret that goes back to the origins of this seaside resort. And buried in James Haas' heart is the need for a sexy beautiful girl from another life but the Mayfair still has a claim on his heart. This is a story about a guy who comes back to rebuild a town, but first he must understand a force as basic as life itself; a power that has been wound up like a spring, awaiting its release. A real page turner! Thoveline has got the right stuff! -John MacKnight, Think Books! Thoveline is a thrilling new talent! -Charles Anderson, Hollywood Export

Murder Manual Steven Womack, 2008-12-18 ALL I REALLY NEED TO KNOW ABOUT MURDER I

LEARNED IN NASHVILLE The bestselling toast of Tennessee, author Robert Jefferson Reed has made big bucks with his little book of folksy homilies like Never go to bed angry and Eat your vegetables. He should have included Don't commit murder. For when Reed's wife hires P.I. Harry James Denton to catch her hubby in a tryst with a sexy secretary, Harry finds the author of Life's Little Maintenance Manual strangled and drowned in his own hot tub. Caught at the scene of the crime, Harry is pegged as the prime suspect and must work double duty to avoid the specter of prison--and to pluck a murderer out of a dead man's tangled past. . . . From the Paperback edition.

Not Even Your Money Matthew Ralph,2003-03 It started out as a high school job to make some extra money for Tangzine editor Matthew Ralph in the mid-'90s, but quickly became fodder for a popular column in the New Jersey-based independent magazine. Bomb scares, strippers, thugs, car lovers, hold-ups, lottery suckers-you name it, Ralph experienced it, jotting each experience down for posterity. Here, for the first time in one place, Ralph pieces together the old stories from the column, works in assorted experiences from a similar job experience in college and brings us 24 stories inspired by odd characters, strange circumstances, and the striking recollections of eight months spent in a Southern New Jersey convenience store.

How to Outsmart a Billion Robot Bees Paul Tobin,2017-03-07 It's Friday the 13th again, and for sixth grade genius Nate Bannister, that means doing three more not-so-smart things to keep life interesting. But he has bigger problems than his own experiments. His nemesis, the Red Death Tea Society, is threatening to unleash a swarm of angry bees on the city of Polt if Nate doesn't join their ranks. But then a new group of people with murky intentions shows up -- the League of Ostracized Fellows -- and they want Nate as their own, too. To top it off, he's convinced there's a spy in his very own school. Nate must once again team up with his new, resourceful, friend Delphine to save the day. They'll need the help of Nate's crazy gadgets, such as his talking car Betsy and super-powered pets Bosper the Scottish terrier and Sir William the gull, if they hope to see another Friday the 13th.

Because they might be battling more than just sting-happy bees and villains with a penchant for tea this time around. Awards for Bandette Winner, Eisner Award for Best Digital Comic Winter, IndieFab Award - Bronze, Graphic Novels & Comics
