The Secrets of Top Producers Stephen Silver, 2017-05 What are the Top Producers doing? What's their secret? How did they become so successful? These are some of the questions I hear frequently in my position as a trainer and coach. So, I've written this book. To reveal their secrets. And the biggest secret of all is...there's no secret! Sure, they have their own specific systems that they've built and adapted over time to fit their business models, but what they do and how they've become successful isn't a secret at all. In this book, you'll find the tools, skills and, biggest secret of all, the mindset, you'll need to develop to help you realize the same level of success as the top producers.

The Beijing Family Gina Tang, 2013-03-31 The Beijing Family is a hilarious and entertainingly funny comedy series about the personal life of a wealthy Chinese billionaire and his family. In this first book, the humble self-made manufacturing billionaire Simon Wang moves his family from Beijing to Beverly Hills so his teenage son can obtain an American college education. Raised in a one child policy generation, the privileged son is shy and talented in martial arts. Simon's mother is a relic from the Cultural Revolution that practices traditional Chinese medicine in their gourmet kitchen. She constantly fears the next Red Army soldier invasion and imminent famine. Arriving later, his niece is a young beauty queen from Beijing whose best friend is a Bernese Mountain Dog that is better fed and groomed than all the migrant workers in China. Together, they settle in their new home in Beverly Hills. With strong roots to China transitioning into Beverly Hills modern luxury, their cultural adjustments are fun and comedic. Mired in old China, the grandmother is undoubtedly unsophisticated but surprises her newfound friends in Beverly Hills at the end in this first book. This is surely not to be missed!
