Looking at Life with Sid Roby Sid Roby,1997

Angels and Skunks Jeff Roby,2013-08-21 Michele Sue, the fourth child of Carolyn Sue (Beck) and Edgar Barnett Roby, was born on February 2, 1970 and endured groundhog jokes most of her life. She grew up in Fort Wayne, Indiana with her sister Cynthia Lynn (Murphy), brother Christopher Edgar and myself, the oldest brother, Jeffrey Alan. Though born last she quickly maneuvered her way to a position of power at the head of the family. It was NOT a hostile takeover. We were her minions and this is the story of my witness to the life she loved and the many legacies she left in her wake. In 1990 Michele married Brian Eastman and they eventually settled into their newly built dream home near Churubusco, Indiana. Brian designed homes while Michele ran a daycare center and worked as a teacher's aide for the school system. They became parents to Emmily Anne and Sammuel Barnett. Michele, born with one 'l' to her name wanted her children to have more than she and thus they were adorned each with an additional 'm' to their names. This metaphor held true her entire life as she always focused on what she could give to others. Her family, friends and the many children she cared for were recipients of the huge legacy of love that emanated from her spirit. This book is a remembrance of childhood stories, growing up in middle America in the 60s through the 90s, along with being a celebration of her achievements as a mother and contributor to the education system. Though her life ended tragically, she lived every moment to the best of her ability and treasured every second of earthy time that she was able to spend with her family and friends -- especially her children who became the primary focus of her short life. In her last hours her biggest dread was having to leave them and not enjoy the development of their lives. But she gave us the biggest gift possible and I feel confident that her spirit is in close proximity to the daily lives of her children.

Robby M. R. Singer,2000-12 This is a success story about Robert J. Tiler, Robby. Robby grew up in Miami Beach, Florida. He became an excellent tennis player in high school and in college. When his father died, he became despondent, left school and enlisted in the Marines. He served in Vietnam, distinguished himself and then suffered postwar depression. After recovering, he decided to go into the computer business. He worked with banks in Miami and Houston. There, he met Paul Lifter, his future partner in the oil buisness as they formed Christing Oil Company.

The Adventures of Young Roby: (revised and Enlarged) Robert Mackel,2021-12-31 The Adventures of Young Roby is a memoir that consists of mostly light-hearted tales and sketches from the author's youth growing up on a farm in the small European country of Luxembourg, in the post World War II era (i.e. nineteen-forties to -sixties). The memoir continues through the author's student days in Germany and Switzerland. The narrative is broken up in a description of the atmosphere and environment that the author grew up in; his adventures on the farm; anecdotes from his teenage years; and from his twenties, as a university student. The story-telling ends with the author's arrival in New York City in 1972. An epilogue highlights his impressions of the U.S.
