If I Were God Forough Farokhzad,2008-08 Forough Farokhzad (1935-1967) is a legendary and controversial figure whose poetry has been repeatedly banned in Iran. Farokhzad was both celebrated and condemned for writing candidly about love, sex, politics, organized religion and the plight of the individual. Her death in an automobile accident at the age of thirty-two cut short a brilliant and tempestuous life, eloquently portrayed in the poems, interviews, and letters collected here. A foreword by Andre Dubus and a trio of insightful essays by translator Meetra A. Sofia provide the historical and cultural context for understanding the revolutionary nature of Farokhzad’s life and work, which continues to inspire generation after generation to memorize her poetry and to regard Farokhzad as an iconic symbol of personal freedom.
