Rome - 2021 Restaurants - The Food Enthusiast's Long Weekend Guide Andrew Delaplaine, 2020-09-16 There are many people who are enthusiastic about food—the cooking of it, the preparation of it, the serving of it, and let's not forget the eating of it. But Andrew Delaplaine is the ultimate Food Enthusiast. This is another of his books with spot-on reviews of the most exciting restaurants in town. Some will merit only a line or two, just to bring them to your attention. Others deserve a half page or more. "Exciting" does not necessarily mean expensive. The area's top spots get the recognition they so richly deserve (and that they so loudly demand), but there are plenty of "sensible alternatives" for those looking for good food handsomely prepared by cooks and chefs who really care what they "plate up" in the kitchen. For those with a touch of Guy Fieri, Delaplaine ferrets out the best food for those on a budget. That dingy looking dive bar around the corner may serve up one of the juiciest burgers in town, perfect to wash down with a locally brewed craft beer. Whatever your predilection or taste, cuisine of choice or your budget, you may rely on Andrew Delaplaine not to disappoint. Delaplaine dines anonymously at the Publisher's expense. No restaurant listed in this series has paid a penny or given so much as a free meal to be included. Bon Appétit!

A Hedonist's Guide to Rome Catherine McCormack, 2006 Rome, the eternal city, is everyone's favorite European city. From the Roman Empire to the Roman Catholic Church, the city has forged the destinies of countries from around the world for many centuries. Between the splendours of the modern and ancient worlds there are the small backstreets and wide piazzas humming with the hustle and bustle of everyday Roman life small, local trattorias sit beside the chicest and smartest of international restaurants. From the majesty of the Colosseum to the magical frescoes of the Sistine Chapel, Rome oozes history, style and sophistication. However, whilst Rome's cultural splendours are well-documented, surprisingly little is really known of the top bars, restaurants, clubs and cafes. The question of where to go once the museums shut is now answered with Hg2 Rome. We delve into the Rome of the Romans, covering the thriving bar and club scene alongside the best of the best restaurants, intimate cafés and world-class shopping.

Time Out Rome Editors of Time Out, 2011-08-03 Written by local experts, Time Out Rome provides extensive coverage of the major sights — and then goes much further. Featuring everything from born-again trattorie to the burgeoning aperitif trend, it offers visitors the chance to experience the Eternal City as the Romans do. History in Rome is not confined to museums, basilicas and galleries — it tumbles out everywhere. And though the city is reassuringly compact, this does not stop the cultural onslaught from being utterly bewildering and exhausting. While some travelers may have to face the fact that they probably won't see everything, it is also important not to shut oneself up inside all day looking at collections and sites or you will miss all that the outdoor scene has to offer. Time Out Rome helps travelers navigate through the cobblestone streets, so that they can eat, drink and shop like the natives. Suggested side trips out of town are also explored.

2022 Rome Andrew Delaplaine, 2022-01-18 Andrew Delaplaine is the ultimate Restaurant Enthusiast. With decades in the food writing business, he has been everywhere and eaten (almost) everything. "Unlike the 'honest' reviews on sites like Yelp, this writer knows what he's talking about. He's a professional, with decades in the business, not a well-intentioned but clueless amateur." = Holly Titler, Los Angeles "This concise guidebook was exactly what I needed to make the most of my limited time in town." = Tanner Davis, Milwaukee This is another of his books with spot-on reviews of the most exciting restaurants in town. Some will merit only a line or two, just to bring them to your attention. Others deserve a half page or more.
