SB Merriam

Safe-Breaker Mystery Simonne Baker, 2021-06-19 I was born in Clapham in 1919. My father worked for the brewers as a wort runner. He was a reliable and conscientious worker, very well thought-of, and rose to be a foreman. Finally he retired on a pension after completing nearly forty years of faithful service. My mother was also a very industrious person. She had been a seamstress before her marriage and she never let her skill lapse. When she married my father she brought with her a treadle sewing machine which stood in a corner of our living room. My mother hated idleness. She used to do sewing for several dress shops.
