Chosen by Santa to Play the Ojer's Game David G. Astete,2018-08-28 This book it's about a Christmas tradition that the character (Oscar) describes what happened a long time ago when he was a kid. He learned about this Christmas tradition when his grandfather told him the story about Santa Claus and his helper Ojer. In the story, Santa helps Ojer to realized how talented and special he really was; in order to do that Santa Claus uses one of his boxes full of cookies to show Ojer's special gift. The tradition says that children will receive a box from the North Pole to fill it with all kinds of cookies for Santa, but on Christsmas Eve if anybody at the dinner table has the same talent as littler Ojer, Santa Claus will share of his delicious cookies with that special person. Santa then will take his box back to the North Pole until the next Christmas and it will be back once again the next year if the kid leaves a note to Santa Claus inside the box. This book has a message about happiness with family traditions, as well a message about kindness and self-confidence. The perfect length for reading before bed.
