The Mac Almanac Sharon Zardetto Aker,1994 Written in the same conversational tone that made The Macintosh Bible such a success, this book takes the concept of the ultimate reference book one step further. With completely updated information, more graphics, and dramatically improved internal design, this book is destined to become the premiere general reference book for today's Mac enthusiasts.

Digital Scrapbooking Maria Given Nerius,2004 It's the next phase in the scrapbooking craze! And this creative resource is the first of its kind—the first to focus on the use of computer hardware and software to unlock an exciting range of creative possibilities. Crafters will explore the many ways digital elements can add pizzazz to their scrapbooks: they'll learn to manipulate pictures with photo/image editing software, use scanners to create themed background papers, and draw on clip art for decorative accents. Going even further into the brave new world, there's information on creating all-digital pages, putting together a slideshow on computer, and pooling various techniques to stage a "digital family reunion."

Teaching the 'Slow' Learner in the Special School M. F. Cleugh,2021-05-30 This book is a re-issue originally published in 1961. The language used is a reflection of its era and no offence is meant by the Publishers to any reader by this re-publication. Dr Cleugh was in charge of the course for teachers of so-called 'educationally sub-normal' children at the University of London Institute of Education. This work, an up-to-date guide at the time, was written by practising teachers who had passed through the Institute's course, and covers every part of the curriculum from the point of view of the 'slow' learner.
