If you are asked to make a list of the things that lead to a great marriage, what would be your response? Many people would talk about commitment, communication, respect, and many other factors. Only a few people may include sex because people overlook the fact that sex creates an intimacy that helps to sustain other factors in the relationship. In some religious doctrines, couples are taught that sex is only necessary for procreation. These kinds of couples would interpret sexual acts aside from the need for procreation as 'not too welcome' because of their conservative beliefs. Others do not properly discuss sex with their partners and things dwindle as a result of lack of intimacy. Just because you've popped out one or two kids does not mean you should retire from the act of having sex because it is important. Do you care to know why? Sex in a successful relationship has to give both partners pleasure and they both should be able to express themselves.
