Certainly, some celebrities craved the somewhat surreal lifestyle but Jeremy, Cheyenne’s lead guitarist knew that it went against her grain. He knew she’d give anything to just call it quits like Grizzly Adams and live happily ever after. Cheyenne was fed up with the glitz and glamour of the big cities. As a matter of fact, she was sick to death of them. Thus, her reason for temporarily quitting her lavish Tour. Yes, she was running away. From society at large. Even though she yearned to go to her ranch in Montana, the Big Sky, she knew that would be the first place her manager would look for her. Cheyenne’s manager was continually putting the pressure on Cheyenne to do show after show with very little down time. Stress had driven Cheyenne to alcohol and Jeremy worried for her. Would the next step be drugs? Las Vegas, New Mexico seemed like it would be a perfect refuge. Cheyenne started performing under an anonymous name at the Lone Star, an isolated roadhouse there. At all cost, she wanted to remain undiscovered for as long as possible. Detached from reality by choice, with the addition of alcohol, Cheyenne was unreachable. This frustrated her associates at the Lone Star, especially their Native American bouncer, Josh Red Hawk who was without a doubt, the most devastatingly handsome man she had ever seen! The captivating Country singer haunted his dreams. There were so many things he wanted to know about her. Where had she come from? Was she just passing through? Did she have a significant other? Is that what she was running from? Would the two connect? Or would they be just two passing ships in the night? Would she return to her extravagant Tour and to her adoring fans the world over?
