H.D. and Modernist Religious Imagination Elizabeth Anderson,2013-08-01 Exploring the intersection of religious sensibility and creativity in the poetry and prose of the American modernist writer, H.D., this volume explores the nexus of the religious, the visionary, the creative and the material. Drawing on original archival research and analyses of newly published and currently unpublished writings by H.D., Elizabeth Anderson shows how the poet's work is informed by a range of religious traditions, from the complexities and contradictions of Moravian Christianity to a wide range of esoteric beliefs and practices. H.D and Modernist Religious Imagination brings H.D.'s texts into dialogue with the French theorist Hélène Cixous, whose attention to writing, imagination and the sacred has been a neglected, but rich, critical and theological resource. In analysing the connection both writers craft between the sacred, the material and the creative, this study makes a thoroughly original contribution to the emerging scholarly conversation on modernism and religion, and the debate on the inter-relation of the spiritual and the material within the interdisciplinary field of literature and religion.

Flowers in the Sky Aieden Grace,2023-03-10 Aieden Grace Padao is a fledgling author who enjoys storytelling. She derives inspiration from her wacky, adventurous, and daring family. Making stubborn and nonconforming personality traits a strength rather than a weakness. Her ethnically diverse and multilingual family and friends allows her to have a heart big enough to include everyone in her stories. In this globally changing world she tells children around the world that they can change society's perspective just by being true to themselves. She shows children that in a world full of No's there is always that one person who will say yes, and that will make all the difference, to make everything that they dream of become a reality. She continues to travel with the goal of seeing the world. She lives in Huntley Illinois with her husband, son, and 2 doggies Wiggy & Ziggy.
