Something Rotten Alan M. Gratz, 2009-01-08 Denmark, Tennessee, stinks. The smell hits Horatio Wilkes the moment he pulls into town to visit his best friend, Hamilton Prince. And it's not just the paper plant and the polluted river that's stinking up Denmark: Hamilton's father has been poisoned and the killer is still at large. Why? Because nobody believes that Rex Prince was murdered. Nobody except Horatio and Hamilton. Now they need to find the killer, but it won't be easy. It seems like everyone in Denmark is a suspect. Motive, means, opportunity--they all have them. But who among them has committed murder most foul?

What He Says As We Walk Jamison A. McIntyre, 2011 There are times in all of our lives when a word in season makes all the difference. Perhaps one might be in a time of decision, crisis, or uncertainty. In such times, a word of encouragement, inspiration, or instruction from the ageless wisdom of God is all that's needed to make a necessary change or decision. This collection of inspirational writings serves as a springboard for contemplation, meditation, and direction for the hungry heart longing to find solace and harmony with Biblical truth. Jamison's writings possess the quality of a contemporary seer, yet are as ageless as the Biblical truths that inspired them. The soul that is longing for peace in troubled times, or simply to rest in the love of God, will find that comfort within the plethora of topics embodied in the pages of What He Says As We Walk. Written over a span of more than a decade What He Says As... is a collection of emotions, thoughts, and answered questions about many subjects of life in general, and intricately. As Jamison travels across the United States and various countries around the world he encounters situations in life that lead him to pray for proper perspective and understanding. His uncommon viewpoints more than a few times will let you see the knowledge you already know from new angles. As well as bringing new insight, wisdom, and revelation you may not have yet considered. What He Says.. has something for the last night's convert as well as the forty-year believer. Inspired by Shel Silverstein (The Light in The Attic; Where The Sidewalk Ends) as a boy, Jamison takes several unique approaches at sharing God's love. His writing styles include but are not limited to short stories, expositions, and poems. Originally hailing from Eatonville, a town just outside the city limits of Orlando, Florida. He presently resides in Fort Lauderdale, Fl. He believes that's it's OK to dance to different beat, as long as you dance to the same Drummer (Christ).

Spin the Bottle Service Kirsten Moxness, Paul Moxness, 2021-06-23 Airports, hotels, bars, and restaurants all present opportunities for hospitality to touch the life of a stranger. In our increasingly data-driven world, we've created systems to quantify, digitize, and calculate how to get the most out of these moments of interaction, but is data really the only way to know if we're truly being of service? Smart hoteliers and restaurateurs understand the power of personal interactions, and as the drive to digital speeds up, the ability to craft a meaningful human interaction will be a big differentiator in the market battle for guest satisfaction and retention. Using examples from over thirty years of international travel and experience in the hospitality industry, Kirsten and Paul Moxness explore key elements of creating personal experiences for guests, including: - Making genuine gratitude a natural and contagious habit - Respecting upgrades and freebies, and handling necessary downgrades - Encouraging supportive teams and empowering each employee to provide exceptional experiences - Taking a compassionate and proactive approach to safety and crisis management and resolving problems Digital cannot replace human interaction, and hospitality is all about making memorable moments of personal experience. Spin the Bottle Service is here to show you that making the most of the touchpoints beyond digital can be as easy as a twist of the wrist.
