Something Rotten Alan M. Gratz, 2009-01-08 Denmark, Tennessee, stinks. The smell hits Horatio Wilkes the moment he pulls into town to visit his best friend, Hamilton Prince. And it's not just the paper plant and the polluted river that's stinking up Denmark: Hamilton's father has been poisoned and the killer is still at large. Why? Because nobody believes that Rex Prince was murdered. Nobody except Horatio and Hamilton. Now they need to find the killer, but it won't be easy. It seems like everyone in Denmark is a suspect. Motive, means, opportunity--they all have them. But who among them has committed murder most foul?

Spin the Bottle Service Kirsten Moxness, Paul Moxness, 2021-06-23 Airports, hotels, bars, and restaurants all present opportunities for hospitality to touch the life of a stranger. In our increasingly data-driven world, we've created systems to quantify, digitize, and calculate how to get the most out of these moments of interaction, but is data really the only way to know if we're truly being of service? Smart hoteliers and restaurateurs understand the power of personal interactions, and as the drive to digital speeds up, the ability to craft a meaningful human interaction will be a big differentiator in the market battle for guest satisfaction and retention. Using examples from over thirty years of international travel and experience in the hospitality industry, Kirsten and Paul Moxness explore key elements of creating personal experiences for guests, including: - Making genuine gratitude a natural and contagious habit - Respecting upgrades and freebies, and handling necessary downgrades - Encouraging supportive teams and empowering each employee to provide exceptional experiences - Taking a compassionate and proactive approach to safety and crisis management and resolving problems Digital cannot replace human interaction, and hospitality is all about making memorable moments of personal experience. Spin the Bottle Service is here to show you that making the most of the touchpoints beyond digital can be as easy as a twist of the wrist.

Kiss and Repeat Heather Truett,2021-05-25 In Heather Truett's Kiss and Repeat, a teen uses the scientific method drilled into him by his scientist father to begin a kissing experiment. Only the experiment gets messy, and Stephen will have to come clean if he wants to win one girl's heart in this heartfelt and funny YA debut. Stephen Luckie isn't so lucky in love. He's completely inexperienced when it comes to girls, and wonders if his tics - caused by Tourette's Syndrome - are the reason. Then a game at a party reveals that his body goes still while kissing. Using the scientific method drilled into him by his scientist father, Steven begins the best experiment ever--one that involves kissing as many girls as possible. Who knew science could be so fun? But when the experiment gets underway, Stephen begins to question how he treats girls - and if his tics have been standing in his way at all. With two girls interested in him, he has to figure out what really matters to him and what he'll risk - and gain - by being his true self.

Hope, Grace, & Faith Leah Messer, 2020-05-05 Leah was first thrust under the reality television microscope when her teen pregnancy was documented on MTV's groundbreaking series, 16 and Pregnant. Since then, fans of Teen Mom 2 have watched her life play out on the small screen—from her struggle to rise to the challenges of motherhood, through her harrowing journey to find a diagnosis for one of her twin girls with a rare form of muscular dystrophy, and the collapse of two marriages. She has learned to live under the harsh glare of media scrutiny, yet there is a truth behind the reality that the cameras have never revealed. In her unflinching and honest memoir, Leah takes readers behind the scenes and shares an intimate, often heartbreaking, portrait of her turbulent childhood in rural West Virginia, the rock bottom that forced her to reevaluate her life, and her triumphant break from toxic relationships and self-destructive cycles to live her life with hope, grace, and faith.

Spin the Bottle Bryce Gibson, 2023-05-25 During a late-night game of Spin the Bottle, a group of teens accidentally release an evil presence onto their small Southern town.

Spin the Bottle Sara Wylde, 2018-09-18 Spin the Bottle Fast Times at Ridgemont Hall #2 Jax I'm a virgin, but I don't want to be. I just want to get it over with, so I made a list. I held interviews. (I know, I'm a total Type A.) The winner is Sebastian Rathbone. Grade A Beefcake who plays defense for the Grizzlies' Rugby team. Manwhore extraordinaire. So basically, a professional. The problem? My best friend, Matt. For some reason, he wanted me to pick him. I'd never choose him because then I'd fall in love and I remember the hell that was middle school. Now that he's grown into his head and feet, and he is by definition also Grade A Beefcake, there's even less chance he'd ever feel more than friendship for me. Why put myself through that? I thought I'd locked all of that away until a game of Spin the Bottle makes me doubt everything. Especially the lie I've been telling myself about not being in love with my best friend. Matt Sebastian Rathbone? Dude. No way. He's not a bad guy, but he's not the guy for Jax. If anyone knows the guy for Jax, that's me. It hurts I wasn't even consulted. Actually, what bothers me the most is that she didn't ask me to be the one. To punch her V-Card, I mean. I'm pretty good at what I do, or so I've been told. It should be a good memory. Something special. And lemme tell you, Rathboner isn't going to make it special for anyone. I don't like it that there's this part of her she's going to give to someone else, but I guess I have to get right with it. I'm the best friend. Not the lover. Except when faced with losing her, I'll have to take a spin on chance just one more time.
