Multo Cindy Fazzi,2023-09-26 His latest job is to catch the one that got away...three times. Filipino-American bounty hunter Domingo has made a career of catching criminal undocumented immigrants. He's the best in the business—and it isn't lost on him that he's so good because of his similarities to his targets. Despite Domingo's claims that he is unsympathetic to their plight, yet spends his spare moments on stakeouts and in between jobs writing a book of advice for aspiring immigrants. Brash, funny, and candid, he compiles the names of all the people he's apprehended, documenting the hazards of his profession, and imparting advice to foreigners who dare to dream of life in America. Domingo's latest job is finding biracial Filipino woman Monica Reed—for the third time. Monica is the only fugitive who has ever escaped him, and the only one he's ever released, against orders. As he embarks on a third and final hunt for her, Domingo uncovers a dangerous truth that Monica was determined to publicize—even though it put her life in danger. And as he chases her around the country, despite his agreement to arrest people like Monica, Domingo finds himself taking her side. Flushing out immigrants whose biggest crime was clinging to the American Dream pales in comparison to getting justice for a woman who he discovers was living in the shadows, but was only ever searching for the truth. Full of action and humor, MULTO is also a meditation on what it means to be unwelcome and unwanted in a country you love and the sacrifices such love requires.

This is not stealing money, or masters of records, or proprietary processes, or even states' secrets. This is extremely dangerous! The most dangerous enterprise Medusa has ever attempted!

The Fixer Upper Judith Arnold, 2016-08-22 Libby Kimmelman is overwhelmed. As the admissions director at an exclusive Manhattan private school, she's awash in bribes from parents desperate to get their offspring into the school. Her apartment is going co-op, and she can't afford it without financial help from her obnoxious ex-husband. Her thirteen-year-old daughter has discovered boys, music, and rule-breaking. Her sister-in-law is determined to set her up with a boring guy from the local synagogue. And then there's Vermont transplant Ned Donovan, whose smart, scrappy son longs to attend Libby's school. Ned's a widower, a carpenter, sexy as sin—and wild about the fireplace in Libby's living room. Ned wants to fix up her apartment. Libby believes he could fix up her life...if only she could be sure that his love isn't simply the biggest, most dangerous bribe she's ever received. Winner of the RT Reviewers Choice Award for best contemporary romance of the year.
