The Poetry Alarm Clock Jill Jennings, 2008-05 In The Poetry Alarm Clock, you will meet a drunk with smeared lipstick who shows up only at midnight; a lady enshrined forever on a restaurant wall; a little boy with Shaken Child Syndrome who just wants a home; a backyard with magical properties; a colonel in the Army who wears orange socks; and a factory worker in a drug plant who runs out of pills for herself. Images like these you won't be able to get out of your mind, and they are on every page of this volume. Poems set like jewels in a jester's crown of the ironic, the ridiculous and the tragic, The Poetry Alarm Clock brings you people you feel you already know as well as new ones you want to know more about. Coming from the mind of a woman who worked in television, newspapers, magazines and public relations, and then gave it all up to teach Latin in the public schools, this book of poetry will appeal to you, even if you hated poetry in high school.

Alarm Clock Everett B. Cole, 2016-08-31 Show Excerpt ugged. I told you, he said. Where I come from, it's a lot colder than it is here, so I don't need a blanket. I'd have offered a swap sooner, but I didn't want to look like some greasy doormat. Wasn't no grease about that swap. Pete grinned and rubbed his neck again. I found out real quick who was the big man. Where'd you learn that stuff anyway? Oh, picked it up--here and there. Stan glanced down at the floor. There would be no point in explaining the intensive close combat training he'd been put through at school. Such training would make no sense to his cellmates. To the good citizens of Kellonia, it would seem horrifyingly illegal. He glanced up again. You know how it is, he went on. A guy learns as he goes. Big Carl Marlo swung his legs over the side of his bunk. Looks like you learned real good, he said. He examined Stan.

Pete tells me about this deal. I kinda miss the action this time, but Pete tells me he's got the blanket and he's all s

God's Alarm Clock Mark T. Frost,2016-04-29 The nation of Israel has played a significant part in the history of the world as God's chosen nation. As a response to the growing anti-Semitic climate in today's culture, this informative text sheds light on Israel's vast historical and religious importance. The Bible makes very specific claims for the promises God made to the nation of Israel concerning its future. Presenting an all-inclusive view of relevant scripture, the book offers the biblical facts behind Israel's history and future. Written to perform as a textbook, study aide, or outline for sermons, God's Alarm Clock discusses the seminal topics surrounding Israel: A breakdown of the content in the Abrahamic Covenant in its two parts The Davidic Covenant concerning King David's direct bloodline to the Messiah Israel's role among the nations of the world The formation of the twelve tribes of Israel The controversy of the Jews' role as God's chosen people and the varying ideologies regarding it Jesus's death, resurrection, and mission, as well as His relationship to Israel God's plan for humankind, as nations and individuals The book of Revelations and Jesus's second coming This comprehensive book will explain it all and build a foundational knowledge of Israel that every Christian should have under their belt. Mark T. Frost was born and raised on the Cape Flats in Cape Town South Africa. At the age of twenty-three and in pursuit of the Truth he started to read the Bible, a search that resulted in a meeting with the Lord of the scriptures Himself, Jesus Christ. A fervent student of the Bible with several years of Bible studies behind him, the author and a colleague went to Mozambique in 1989 to start training church leaders in that war torn country. Very early in his missionary calling Mark had a vision for the unification of the Church, the worldwide body of Christ, the biggest living organism in the universe. In cooperation with several international Christian organisations having as their main thrust leadership training within the church, the work steadily grew to include all denominations, both mainstream and independent, in the capital city Maputo. By the time Mark left Mozambique ten years later the work had expanded and covered most of the major districts in southern Mozambique. Today the author resides in Sweden with His family.

I do not leave it there. I also help you to take action to fulfill YOUR dreams. Learn some practical strategies. Here's where we are going: 1. Peace Corps. I joined at the age of 60 and spent 2 years in Botswana working on the AIDS pandemic 2. I served on the Africa Mercy hospital ship for 7 months in Madagascar 3. I went to New Guinea to serve with Mission Aviation Fellowship (MAF) 4. I served with Samaritan's Purse in North Vietnam, Liberia (post Ebola), Greece (the refugee crisis), Jordan (a Bedouin hospital), South Sudan (the youngest nation on earth) and Nepal (on earthquake rebuilds). I went multiple times to some of these locations and learned so much! My theme is, don't give up on your dreams! It's not too late! I will teach you how to resurrect old dreams and remodel them. Or how to create a new dream. Many have had their dreams shattered lately. Don't let a virus steal your dream! You can do this!! Don't give up!! Many of my stories occurred between the ages of 60-71. It's not too late to make a difference or to start off in a new direction. Let my life be an inspiration. Dream On!

Plato's Alarm Clock James M. Russell, 2018-11-01 We all like to think we are pretty smart. New medical advances seem to come along every day; space travel suddenly doesn't seem so difficult; self-driving cars are no longer a thing of the future. But if we were stranded on a desert island tomorrow, most of us wouldn't know how to catch a fish or start a fire, let alone rebuild all that extraordinary technology we now rely on. The truth is that we're not necessarily more clever than our ancestors, we just have an accumulation of centuries of technological progress on which we can rely. As this book shows, many of the ancients were much more advanced than we realize - indeed there are recent inventions that had actually been discovered centuries earlier and then forgotten. And what about all those modern day devices and machines that rely on ancient inventions such as paper, levers and gears? From brain surgery in the Stone Age to Chinese whisky from the 7th century BC, to Damascus steel - once the hardest metal in the world, which we no longer know how to make - this insightful book collects together the stories of hundreds of ancient devices, inventions and breakthroughs from around the world and across the centuries, giving us a fascinating glimpse into past eras that were far more technologically advanced than we sometimes realize.

Zapped Ann Louise Gittleman, 2011-10-04 An Eye-Opening Guide for Anyone Who's Plugged In Are we going to give up our cell phones, laptops, and other electronics? Absolutely not. But emerging scientific evidence reveals that the very innovations that have changed our lives are also exposing us to an unprecedented number of electromagnetic fields—and that it's crucial we make important changes to our home and work environments. Now, Ann Louise Gittleman has created the first step-by-step manual for fortifying your body, detoxifying your home, and protecting yourself and your family from electronic pollution (and her powerful fixes are easier than you might think!). Zapped is an empowering guide to living safely with the gadgets we can't live without.

Sacred Alarm Clock O Backup John T. Biggs, White man's power runs through copper wires. When the wire is cut, their clocks all stop, Geronimo whispers to Wylie E. Chatto, a mentally challenged young Apache man. Soon, Chatto smells rosemary—the scent of complicated things, of trouble brewing on an electric stove. Electricity is the first to go. Then gasoline. Then law and order. The Sacred Alarm Clock doesn't tick. It rides in on an influenza strain called New Flu. It starts with nausea but soon goes to the brain and puts the victim into a Spanish Inquisition frame of mind. Civilization's last hope lies in the hands of people who never quite fit into the old world. People like Chatto, who saw the whole thing coming in a vision; Mona and Chris, star-crossed lovers hiking across a ravaged countryside in search of civilization; Karma and Joseph, a pair of outcast teenagers who find themselves at odds with a city full of wild dogs and crazy people; and Mary, who forages for food and ammunition across a derelict urban landscape while avoiding gangs intent on her rape and murder.

Earth Force Shemer Kuznits, 2019-04-30 On the first day, a mist descended from the heavens blanketing Earth. On the second day, a cryptic message, 'Infusion commencing', appeared in the corner of everyone's eyes. On the third day, the sick were healed and the crippled walked again. On the fourth day, celebration and joy spread across the globe. And on the fifth day, the warping began...There was no warning. A mist descended from the sky, disabling all technology and causing a weird message to appear at the corner of everyone's eye. The situation grew even worse as animals and people started to warp, transforming into terrible monsters that prey on the livings. Within months, human civilization had crumbled. Unable to fight the seemingly-indestructible beasts, the survivors are reduced to cowering in reinforced shelters. Waiting for the end to come. Helpless. All seemed lost until a few brave souls discovered the secret of their new reality: the Tec and how to use it to level up. Together they represent humanity's last best hope for salvation. But they first must find the answers to the mystery of their new existence. Their journey will require them to quickly adapt to alien technology, operate strange spaceships, and even befriend an extra-terrestrial merchant with an Inferiority Complex.
