Quozl Alan Dean Foster,2014-11-04 Rabbitlike aliens from outer space colonize Earth during humankind's Second World War in a delightfully funny and thought-provoking science fiction adventure The Quozl just need somewhere to call home. A gentle race of extraterrestrial rabbits, they have a propensity for reproduction that has left their home planet, Quozlene, dangerously overpopulated, and in their search for greener and less-crowded pastures, they have discovered the perfect place to start over: the third planet away from a healthy, warming sun. What they don't realize is that this world they call Shiraz is already inhabited by a species of violent sentient creatures known as humans. But there's no going back now. In the midst of the brutal and helpfully distracting global conflict the Shirazians call World War II, the colony ship lands undetected, and the space rabbits immediately go into hiding. But a secret like the Quozl can be concealed for only so long, especially when their numbers start to increase and certain rebellious members of the long-eared society decide the time is ripe to claim their place in a world they believe is rightfully theirs. One of the most admired and prolific authors in the science fiction arena, Alan Dean Foster will delight readers who hunger for something different with this funny, thoughtful, and wildly inventive novel of first contact and coexistence. Once you meet the Quozl, you will never forget them.

Aliens in the Old Testament Alan McGregor,2012-09-17 There have been many books written about the past and present existence of aliens on our planet Earth. Alan McGregor's book, "Aliens In the Old Testament", is significantly different from those other books you've probably read. Instead of a book full of all those UFO and alien abduction accounts you're likely already familiar with, McGregor's book discusses the alien presence that appears so glaringly throughout the Old Testament. In fact, the alien presence is so blatant, so obvious that you will wonder how you could have ever missed it. It's the author's belief that the Old Testament, if taken literally, proves beyond doubt that the alien presence was a reality thousands of years ago, and the Old Testament is a clear, literal written record of this presence. So, wait just a minute. If we take the Old Testament literally, doesn't that prove God is real? No. A true literal read reveals a race of alien beings, a race of beings that is as flawed as you and me. Thousands of years ago, when seemingly miraculous events were recorded and eventually assembled into what has come to be called the Old Testament, these technologically advanced beings were seen as godlike. Whatever technical wizardry they pulled off back then looked miraculous to the people of that time. But we are no longer dazzled by what seemed miraculous to the people of the Old Testament. We can now look at the Old Testament through a more realistic lens: the lens of our present technology. To prove his point, McGregor lays out in detail several familiar stories of the Old Testament: stories like the Creation story, the Garden of Eden with its nasty talking snake, the Destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, the Parting of the Red Sea, and others. Once you realize what's really going on, you will see remarkable technology showcased in all these stories as just that: technology, not miracles. Not to be missed is McGregor's detailed description of what kind of ship Ezekiel encountered in the desert. Just what was that miraculous wheel way up in the middle of the air? Others have tried to describe this mind-blowing vehicle, but McGregor gives you a vivid picture of what Ezekiel really encountered. The reality of it was simply too much for this Bronze Age human who was convinced he saw angels and God Almighty riding a flaming chariot. This book features detailed interpretations of Old Testament text, (King James ver.), plus re-imagined scenarios with dialogue that makes the original text come alive as an exciting story that puts you in the minds of the aliens as they interacted with Old Testament man. (To the author's knowledge, this approach has never been taken before.) The book is also rife with illustrations and photos. In addition to an exploration of Old Testament events, Aliens In the Old Testament discusses the evidence of the alien presence in early cave art, great art masterworks of more recent medieval times, miraculous events in the 20th Century Catholic Church, the Nazis of WWII, and in the present day testimony of UFO sightings witnessed by NASA astronauts. If you are willing to explore with an open mind, this book will take you to a level of understanding no other book like this has ever given you. And all of you who have that copy of the Old Testament or the Torah gathering dust on a bookshelf somewhere will realize that you now have the tools to do some of your own serious research. All you have to do is open the book and read! (It should be noted that Aliens In the Old Testament DOES NOT set out to DISprove the existence of God. It only seeks to uncover accounts of those beings that for thousands of years have been mistaken for God.)

Making Contact Alan Steinfeld,2021-05-04 I feel it is one of the best approaches I have found to grasp the most jarring enigma humanity has ever faced. —George Noory, host of Coast to Coast AM “We cannot separate the earth from its greater cosmic environment. What is needed is a new story and Alan Steinfeld’s Making Contact is part of that story.” —Deepak Chopra, Author, Total Meditation How can we prepare for an event that is literally beyond anything humanity has ever faced? Making Contact presents multiple perspectives on what no longer can be denied: UFOs and their occupants are visiting our world. The book answers questions which remain in the wake of the recent Pentagon’s disclosures as to who and why these beings are here. The volume contains original writings by the leading experts of the phenomena such as: Linda Moulton Howe, Earthfiles reporter, Whitley Strieber best-selling author of Communion, Professor John E. Mack, former head of the Harvard Medical school of psychiatry and an alien abduction investigator, Darryl Anka internationally known for his communication with the extraterrestrial Bashar, Nick Pope, former UK Ministry of Defense UFO investigator, Grant Cameron expert on American presidents and UFOs, Drs. J.J. and Desiree Hurtak, globalists and founders of the worldwide organization, The Academy for Future Science, Caroline Cory, director of Superhuman and ET: Contact, Mary Rodwell, author of the New Human about star-seed children, Henrietta Weekes, actress and writer, expressing the poetic aspects of making contact. Alan Steinfeld, contributes and curates the collection with 30 years of experience with the subject. The Foreword by George Noory of Coast to Coast AM kicks off the volume with his veteran overview of the need to wake up to the “new realities of extraterrestrial existence.” At this critical juncture in the government’s official acknowledgement of the reality of UFOs/UAPs, scientists, politicians and mainstream news outlets have no idea what to make of these startling revelations or the outpouring of sightings and “contact” experiences currently being reported on a global scale. The book stands as the most comprehensive clarification to date on the intent and intelligence behind the phenomena. The variety of viewpoints expressed in the volume provide a solid foundation for the “preparation” of the greatest challenge to ever face humankind. Making Contact stands as the essential handbook for embracing the most exalted moment in history: Meeting the cosmic others.

Alien Times - Book 1, Revelation Don Vecelli, 2023-02-26 A Top-Secret U.S. special black operations group has been covering up alien visitations and secret alien UFO research projects for decades. This time, they went too far. They are holding a real live alien captive at Area 51 and will do anything to prevent this alien from meeting with the President and going public, finally proving once and for all that extraterrestrials do exist. This Top-Secret organization is called Extraterrestrial Counter Threat Group (ECTG). It is run by a high-ranking Pentagon Chief of Staff Space Force general who heads a secret team of scientists tasked with reverse engineering advanced UFO spacecraft held at Area 4, which is part of the highly restrictive Area 51 military base in Nevada. The ECTG will do anything to prevent this alien from meeting with the President of the United States, including murdering a Washington Post investigative reporter in the name of National Security. With help from a woman staff reporter for the Washington Post and a special agent for the Airborne Object Identification Group (AOIG), the alien finally escapes captivity and meets with the President of the U.S. at Camp David. The alien has an important message and offer of help for the President and the people on this planet. The question becomes, will people listen to the message or ignore the peril the world is facing in this time of extreme environmental crises?

Paladin's Trial Michael Boatman, 2017-05-01 When a moon-sized alien artifact enters our solar system, humankind finally learns that we are not alone in the universe. When a wave of homicidal madness engulfs the planet, however, the human race is rapidly overwhelmed. In New York City, a man shattered by grief learns a terrible secret. Now Alan Whitmore must lead a band of survivors in a quest to find an even deadlier intruder, the one being that may possess the key to humanity's salvation. Can humanity survive in a world transformed by terror, and battered by forces beyond mortal comprehension?

Relic Alan Dean Foster, 2019-03-26 The last known human searches the galaxy for companionship in a brilliant standalone novel from the legendary author of the Pip & Flinx series. "A provocative read."—The Washington Post Once Homo sapiens reigned supreme, spreading from star system to star system in an empire that encountered no alien life and thus knew no enemy . . . save itself. As had happened many times before, the basest, most primal human instincts rose up, only this time armed with the advanced scientific knowledge to create a genetically engineered smart virus that quickly wiped out humanity to the last man. That man is Ruslan, the sole known surviving human being in the universe. Rescued from the charnel house of his home planet by the Myssari—an intelligent alien race—Ruslan spends his days as something of a cross between a research subject and a zoo attraction. Though the Myssari are determined to resurrect the human race, using Ruslan's genetic material, all he wants for himself and his species is oblivion. But then the Myssari make Ruslan an extraordinary offer: In exchange for his cooperation, they will do everything in their considerable power to find the lost home world of his species—an all-but-mythical place called Earth—and, perhaps, another living human. Thus begins an epic journey of adventure, danger, heartbreak, and hope, as Ruslan sets out in search of a place that may no longer exist—drawn by the slimmest yet most enduring hope. Praise for Relic "Relic is a thrilling and thoughtful epic. With Alan Dean Foster's trademark invention in both the psychology and physiology of his aliens, he also enriches the narrative with their complex cultures. The plot spans galaxies!"—Hugo and Nebula Award-winning author Greg Bear "The stunning plot of Foster's stand-alone novel will intrigue readers for not only the 'last man in the universe' trope but also the well-developed alien species. A true first contact novel on many different levels."—Library Journal "Foster's sympathetic novel successfully surveys human frailty, the tendency not to learn from history, and an enduring capacity for adaptation and emotional attachment."—Publishers Weekly "Foster's high-concept novel is a gripping tale of serenity amid sorrow."—World Magazine

Intergalactic Travels Alan Pelaez Lopez, 2020-02-22 Intergalactic Travels: poems from a fugitive alien is a poetry memoir that takes up the intersections of Indigeneity, Blackness, queerness and migration as it relates to U.S. federal immigration law. The book pushes the boundaries of an undocumented immigrant narrative via the poet's refusal to belong to United Statesian society and the refusal of a structured poetics. In fact, the chaotic geographies of the manuscript (collages + photographs + emails + negative space) formulate theories of fugitivity that position the transatlantic slave trade and Indigenous dispossession as root causes of undocumented immigration. In this refusal of national belonging and form, the book asks for a critical kinship that the law can never account for, and thus, Pelaez Lopez negotiates legal status for new imaginaries of care. As a whole, the manuscript asks: what does it mean that a descendant of enslaved Africans becomes an illegal alien in the same continent that subjugated their ancestors to chattel slavery? Furthermore, can an Indigenous subject of this continent be considered 'illegal' in the continent of their ancestors?
