Harry the Hedgehog in the Garden Ann Thorne,2014-02-19 This is a little story about hedgehogs who live in the garden. How they go around each night browsing for things to eat and what they can use in their house at the end of the garden. It also describes their friends and how they enjoy life when everyone is inside for the night. It describes how they would recycle things that the dog dropped or were lying around in the garden some probably blown there by the wind. They make full use of all their finds and also show their friends what can be achieved by recycling little items like bottle tops or little scraps of material and turning them into useful items.
