Denali Ben Moon,2020-01-14 ....a very sweet dog story -- Outside The story of a dog, his human, and the friendship that saved both of their lives. When Ben Moon moved from the Midwest to Oregon, he hadn't planned on getting a dog. But when he first met the soulful gaze of a rescue pup in a shelter, Ben instantly felt a connection, and his friendship with Denali was born. The two of them set out on the road together, on an adventure that would take them across the American west and through some of the best years of their lives. But when Ben was diagnosed with colorectal cancer at age 29, he faced a difficult battle with the disease, and Denali never once left his side until they were back out surfing and climbing crags. It was only a short time later that Denali was struck by the same disease, and Ben had the chance to return the favor. Denali is the story of this powerful friendship that shaped Ben and Denali's lives, showing the strength and love that we give and receive when we have our friends by our side.

How Our Love of Dogs Creates Social Conflict James K. Beggan,2022-09-07 The author examines the meaning that dogs have for people as friends and family members. This almost magical interspecies connection, which relates to philosophical concepts about the moral responsibility human beings have to dogs, can increase social conflict between people because of differences in how people care for their dogs.

Strengthening Forensic Science in the United States National Research Council,Division on Engineering and Physical Sciences,Committee on Applied and Theoretical Statistics,Policy and Global Affairs,Committee on Science, Technology, and Law,Committee on Identifying the Needs of the Forensic Sciences Community,2009-07-29 Scores of talented and dedicated people serve the forensic science community, performing vitally important work. However, they are often constrained by lack of adequate resources, sound policies, and national support. It is clear that change and advancements, both systematic and scientific, are needed in a number of forensic science disciplines to ensure the reliability of work, establish enforceable standards, and promote best practices with consistent application. Strengthening Forensic Science in the United States: A Path Forward provides a detailed plan for addressing these needs and suggests the creation of a new government entity, the National Institute of Forensic Science, to establish and enforce standards within the forensic science community. The benefits of improving and regulating the forensic science disciplines are clear: assisting law enforcement officials, enhancing homeland security, and reducing the risk of wrongful conviction and exoneration. Strengthening Forensic Science in the United States gives a full account of what is needed to advance the forensic science disciplines, including upgrading of systems and organizational structures, better training, widespread adoption of uniform and enforceable best practices, and mandatory certification and accreditation programs. While this book provides an essential call-to-action for congress and policy makers, it also serves as a vital tool for law enforcement agencies, criminal prosecutors and attorneys, and forensic science educators.

How to Love Your Neighbor Without Being Weird Amy Lively, 2015-04-28 I want to love my neighbor, but I don't know how. Most of us feel guilty about Christ's command to love our neighbor, but let's be honest--we don't even know most of the people living around us. How can we love people we don't even know? Besides, doesn't it count as loving our neighbor when we send money to missionaries and put out yard signs for our church? Are we supposed to just knock on our neighbors' doors and tell them about Jesus? They'll think I'm weird. How to Love Your Neighbor Without Being Weird helps you overcome fears about getting to know your neighbors and sharing your faith. You'll learn simple, practical ways to get to know your neighbors, using your God-given personality. As you venture out of the comfort of your living room and into the lives of your neighbors, you'll form authentic friendships, create a safer community, and find fulfillment in obeying Christ's #2 command. Loving your neighbor isn't a random command; it's God's perfect plan. A very timely book for a very isolated culture. Amy Lively offers practical help and guidance in the neglected practice of hospitality.--Dr. Dennis Rainey, president, FamilyLife This ministry is changing lives. Amy has followed God's leading into an untapped area of people that need Jesus. What a simple idea of reaching out to your neighborhood--the area that God placed you in for His purposes. Amy's ideas and excellent resources have offered a no-excuse zone for this ministry. The Lord said, 'Love me and love your neighbor.' He chose Amy to show us the way. Thank you for this amazing resource!--Chrissy Dunham, director of women's ministry at Prestonwood Baptist Church, Plano, Texas Amy knows God has given each of us a corner of the world to share the love of Jesus and the hope found in His Word. Her book equips women, spiritually and practically, to answer this call and open their hearts and homes to friends and neighbors.--Wendy Blight, Proverbs 31 Ministries speaker and author Amy's brilliant approach to engaging our neighbors is natural, fun, and life-changing! She provides every single thing you will need, including courage. This book and practice is a must for everyone desiring to honor and obey the Lord.--Debbie Stuart, church and leadership development director, Women of Faith Amy gives us the keys to really connect with those who live around us--not with an agenda, but with a heart toward real relationships. A must-read for anyone who believes that 'Love thy neighbor' really starts at your front door.--Kathi Lipp, coauthor of The Cure for the Perfect Life and author of The Husband Project With hundreds of friends on social media, why are we so lonely? In her amazing book, Amy Lively identifies the heart-need for deep connection that's not being met through a screen and offers a simple solution: Actually meet the people who live near you. Amy's openness to share her successes and failures at reaching out will inspire you to try it yourself.--Glynnis Whitwer, author of Everyday Confetti; executive director of communications, Proverbs 31 Ministries Amy shows us, step-by-step, how to conquer our fears, connect with our neighbors, and have fun too! Highly recommend!--Cindy Bultema, speaker, Bible teacher, and author of Red Hot Faith What does 'love your neighbor as yourself' really mean? In this book, Amy Lively will give you the tips, tools, and techniques you need to love your neighbor in your own unique way.--Jennifer Rothschild, author of Lessons I Learned in the Dark; founder of Fresh Grounded Faith events and womensministry.net

Homeseekers S. B. Broshar, 2010-05-18 For it pleased the Father that in Him all the fullness should dwell, and by Him to reconcile all things to Himself, by Him, whether things on earth or things in heaven, having made peace through the blood of His cross . . . Once you were alienated from God and were enemies in your minds because of your evil behavior. But now he has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death to present you holy in his sight, without blemish and free from accusation . . . If you continue in the faith, established and firm, not moved from the hope held out in the gospel. This is the gospel that you heard and that has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven, and of which I, Paul, have become a servant (Colossians 1:19-23 New King James Version Bible). This is a fictional story about Bailey, a common house cat that suffers the death of a relationship and is cruelly cast out into a world he is ill equipped to deal with. Fear grips him and is only assuaged when in the presence of friends he finds on his journey. When he learns about another Friend, an unseen friend, he must decide whether or not he can trust that One even more than he trusts his earthly companions. Late in life I found myself alone in a world that frightened me. For company, I rescued a starving cat in need of a home and tender loving care and as I watched him become healthy and strong, I began to realize some undeniable similarities between his predicament and my own and between his species and my species. Beginning with the most obvious, mankind and creaturekind were both created by the same God on the same day. God breathed life into both animal and man, though only man is made in the image of God. That same Creativity instilled unique traits and abilities into animals and man. He commanded them to be fruitful and multiply because it was important to God that they all continue to exist. While in the Garden, man was commanded to care for the land and the animals, but the Bible also mentions livestock as separate beasts from the wild animals and that suggests that certain ones of the animal kingdom were designated to be of help and service to mankind, not only as food and beasts of burden but as companions and partners. In the past six thousand years, no new species of animal has ever been successfully domesticated. When man sinned, all were banished from the Garden. Being made in the image of God, man was given an independent spirit and the freedom to make his own choices about how he will live and what he will believe. Obviously, man made huge mistakes from the very beginning with that freedom and found that freedom does not mean you do not have to obey certain rules! And I think that most humans would agree that cats exhibit the same freedom of choice as evidenced by the many myths and legends that surround the singularity of cats. But the most compelling similarity of all is the fact that animals suffer from the pain of rejection and cruelty just as we do. In our world today, there are shelters for lost and abused animals and shelters for lost and abused humans. There are homeless dogs and cats and homeless men and women wandering the streets of our cities and the roadsides of the country, searching for a safe and forever home. . I was touched and inspired by this cat's plight and began to imagine and do some studying about what pet cats might go through when they suddenly find themselves out alone in a world they are barely able to cope with. This is not just a book about a lost cat. It is a book about all who are lost, animal or man. What path to take? Who to trust? Why are we here? Where is our Forever Home?
