Village Idiom Tim Biancalana,2003-01-01 Actor/author/illustrator Tim Biancalana, tickles the funny bone with this delightfully witty and charming tribute. Tim's word play, silliness, and irreverent social satire, are very reminiscent of John Lennon's cheeky humor, making this book is a must for Beatles and Monty Python fans alike.

Rus og Rolex Bjørn Olav Jahr,2011-09-16 Den vellykkede forretningsmannen Olaf Olsvik red høyt på 1980-årenes jappebølge. Han drev stort innenfor tekstilindustrien, men utviklet etter hvert et ekstremt misbruk av alkohol, piller og kokain. Den kostbare og ekstravagante livsstilen lot seg vanskelig kombinere med familieliv og mer eller mindre lovlydig forretningsdrift. Etterhvert forlot han da også begge deler til fordel for enhver lyssky virksomhet som kunne skaffe ham penger til rusmidler. I denne usedvanlig selvutleverende beretningen om en narkoman og kriminell forretningsmann avdekkes sider ved norsk virkelighet som vi aldri tidligere har fått innblikk i. Boken gir et rått og usminket bilde av hverdagen til en norsk næringslivsnarkoman, en mann med en uhyggelig livshistorie, men også en vilje til å legge absolutt alle kort på bordet. Rus og Rolex er ført i pennen av Bjørn Olav Jahr, en journalist, forfatter og forlagsredaktør med god innsikt i den næringslivsverdenen han beskriver. BJØRN OLAV JAHR (født 1969) er utdannet samfunnsøkonom fra Universitetet i Oslo, og har lang fartstid som journalist i bl.a. Kapital, Dagbladet og Memo. I 2002 vant han SKUP-prisen, norsk presses pris for fremragende undersøkende journalistikk, for opprullingen av Finance Credit-saken. OLAF OLSVIK (født 1955) vokste opp på Sundalsøra og i Sandefjord med mor, far og to yngre søstre. Han tok handelsskole og startet tidlig sitt eget selskap innen tekstilbransjen. Han produserte og importerte klær fra Østen og drev det stort i bransjen, men nedturen kom raskt etter en skilsmisse i 1987. I dag driver han Mestringshuset, et behandlingssenter for rusavhengige, sammen med sin kone Margit. Olsvik er også en ettertraktet rådgiver og foredragsholder.

A Legal Framework from Emerging Business Models Emily M. Weitzenboeck,2012 The last two decades have witnessed the growth of new forms of entrepreneurial cooperation such as dynamic networks like virtual enterprises and enterprise pools. These business forms are often hybrid, having elements of both contract-based organizations and corporate forms, in particular partnership. This book examines the relative utility of contract and partnership law in fostering and maintaining these emerging business models, focusing on dynamic networks. The book analyses how dynamic networks are organized and set up through, very often, collaborative contracts and how the behaviour of their member firms is regulated. Good faith and fair dealing as a behavioural criterion in contractual and partnership relations, is an important theme of this work. The background and preconditions for the emergence and growth of such business forms is also investigated. The book contains case studies of such networks from different countries in particular Germany, Austria, Switzerland, England and Norway. It examines relevant legal rules in a number of jurisdictions such as England, Norway, Germany, Italy, France and the US. This detailed book will appeal to postgraduate students and academics in the fields of contract law, comparative law, partnership law and business/commercial law. Academics in other disciplines such as economics, sociology and business management will also find much to interest them in this study.

Jumana Manna Ana María Bresciani,2018 Jumana Manna has emerged on the international art scene as a unique voice among her generation. Her work in film and sculpture explores how power is articulated through relationships, often focusing on the body and materiality in relation to narratives of nationalism and histories of place. This book accompanies the first solo museum presentation of the artist in the Nordic region, at Henie Onstad Kunstsenter, and traces her distinctive work. Ana María Bresciani writes about Manna's investigations into scale and her focus on the migration of agricultural practices, regional cultures, and botanical species. Manna and the agronomist Salvatore Ceccarelli discuss the sharing of agricultural heritage and the safeguarding of the earth's vital resources as well as the cultural importance of groups that are tasked with managing and securing the biological diversity of their respective localities. An essay by curator Ruba Katrib considers Manna's inquiry into cultural stability with regard to the ancient cultures of the Levantine, and the reigning external-environmental and social forces responsible for creating a stable culture. -- Publisher's

The Hero Trap Thomas Kolster,2020-05-28 Most companies today are firmly on the social and environmental issues ‘bandwagon’, like bees around a honey pot, from plastic in oceans through to diversity. As a result, people are increasingly distrustful of these efforts which they view as cheap marketing stunts meant to wow people into buying more. Try to fly like a superman, and you will come down like a tin of soup. Market economists have long told us that we’re driven only by money and status, but the inherent human truth that cuts across age, culture and gender uncovers a stronger force: we wish to be in charge of our own lives and our own happiness. Through extensive growth and affinity research, world-renowned purpose-pioneer, Thomas Kolster, uncovers a simple answer that is key to driving marketing growth in the 21st century: if you put people in control of the marketing mix, from products to promotion, they can grow and in turn grow your organisation. This book explains the meteoric rise of a company like AirBnB, how a 20-something Swede, Maria de la Croix, built a global coffee empire like Wheelys in just a few years, and how a group of friends hanging out in a bar in Melbourne created one of the largest global non-profits fighting for men’s health, Movember – and how you can empower people to do the same. Today’s power no longer rests in the hands of the privileged few, but in the talented many. It is time for you to unleash that power, in numbers. Drawing on top-line marketing case studies and in-depth interviews, Kolster demonstrates how people are truly motivated to act when they’re in charge of their own life and happiness. ‘Who can you help me become?’ is the one essential question you need to be asking and acting on to chart a new course for your organisation, changing behaviours at scale and unlocking sustainable growth that benefits all.
