Animals in Winter Henrietta Bancroft,Richard G. Van Gelder,2021-10-12 Read and find out about how animals cope with winter in this colorfully illustrated nonfiction picture book. This is a clear and appealing book for early elementary age kids, both at home and in the classroom. Introduce kids to basic science ideas as part of discussions about the seasons and animals. Have you ever seen a butterfly in the snow? Probably not. Butterflies can't survive cold weather, so when winter comes, many butterflies fly to warmer places. They migrate. Woodchucks don't like cold weather either, but they don't migrate; they hibernate. Woodchucks sleep in their dens all winter long. How do these and other animals handle the cold and snow of winter? Read and find out in the proven winner Animals in Winter! This is a Level 1 Let's-Read-and-Find-Out, which means the book explores introductory concepts perfect for children in the primary grades. The 100+ titles in this leading nonfiction series are: hands-on and visual acclaimed and trusted great for classrooms Top 10 reasons to love LRFOs: Entertain and educate at the same time Have appealing, child-centered topics Developmentally appropriate for emerging readers Focused; answering questions instead of using survey approach Employ engaging picture book quality illustrations Use simple charts and graphics to improve visual literacy skills Feature hands-on activities to engage young scientists Meet national science education standards Written/illustrated by award-winning authors/illustrators & vetted by an expert in the field Over 130 titles in print, meeting a wide range of kids' scientific interests Books in this series support the Common Core Learning Standards, Next Generation Science Standards, and the Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math (STEM) standards. Lion and the Fear of Water 3 Dr MC,2016-08-29 Children nowadays have a very short attention span, now you see them watching television, a couple of seconds they are already fighting with each other. And most of the time, parents have a hard time getting their children go to bed, or refuse to join mutual activities. Reading your children with bedtime stories will cultivate imagination, creates a bond between you and your children, encourages love for reading, and establishes a habit. In a big jungle, there lived a lion. The jungle was enormous with so many different tall trees and thick bushes scattered around it. The ground was covered in fallen leaves and tall grass, with many various bugs and beetles living on it. The lion was living there with his animal friends. His best friend, elephant, has just returned from the center of the forest after searching for food. Cheetah was lying on a nearby tree, occupying long lower branch on it. Underneath that tree, there was a small rock formation and just behind it a large lake. It was right in the middle of the jungle and it was a favorite place for all the animals to come and relax during hot summer days. The Professional Dog Sue Clancy,2021-11-16 In this abecedarian art album, The Professional Dog, Sue Clancy shares handmade portraits she created of her friends' dogs in alphabetical order by profession (job) along with an adjective (descriptive word) in a sentence about each dog. Clancy's text and book concept are inspired by a 19th century word game called The Minister's Cat. Can you think of more professions and adjectives in alphabetical order than there are in this book? This book was made because Clancy believes that children need books of fine art too - any vocabulary building there may be in this book is a bonus.

Lion and the Toothache 4 Dr MC,2016-08-29 There are a lot of benefits that your children can get when you as a parent read them bedtime stories. You will be able to spend quality time together with your child, and by spending time with you, you and your child get to do something new together - cheer for the good guys and boo the bad ones in the books you read. You also get a peek into how your child sees the world through the comments she makes on the plot, the characters, and the setting. It was a happy day in the animal kingdom. The wild boar was throwing a birthday party and he invited all the animals to his celebration. There were giraffes chewing the green leaves above the boar's burrow, elephants were taking a walk around the woods trying to find a gift for the boar, monkeys were playing with all sorts of different fruit, deers and does came with their offspring, few lionesses with cubs and a lion. The sun was shining in the sky and the song could be heard from the forest. The boar went through deep organization of his birthday party. He arranged the tables and filled them with fruits, grass, leaves, meat and sweets for all his animal friends. Baloons were hanging from the branches and colorful tapes were scattered around the trees.
