

The Mystery Of Bockston House

Horace Gordon Hutchinson

The Mystery of Hartley House Clifford Raymond,1918

The Mystery of Biltmore House ,2009 Set at America's largest private residence-250 rooms-with real secret passages! Readers learn about the Victorian era when electricity & other newfangled things kids take for granted today first came to be. Napoleon, the Vanderbilts, & some of America's greatest writers figure into the plot, as does natural resource conservation.

The House Opposite Elizabeth Kent,1902

The Dower House Mystery Patricia Wentworth,1925

The Mystery at Underwood House Clara Benson,2013-09-02 Old Philip Haynes was never happier than when his family were at each other's throats. Even after his death the terms of his will ensured they would keep on feuding. But now three people are dead and the accusations are flying. Can there really be a murderer in the family? Torn between friendship and duty, Angela Marchmont must find out the truth before the killer can strike again. The Mystery at Underwood House is the latest exciting 1920s whodunit featuring reluctant 'lady detective' Angela Marchmont.

The Red House Mystery A. A. Milne,2012-07-03 In between tea and billiards, a pair of amateur detectives investigates their host's disappearance. Droll whodunit from the creator of Winnie the Pooh sparkles with witty dialogue, deft plotting, and an amusing cast.

The House in the Mist Anna Katharine Green,1905 Original manuscript, with letters of presentation from Charles D. Rohlf's and Frank M. O'Brien.

Death at a Country Mansion Louise R. Innes,2020-12-01 "First in a new series...this lively cozy has glamour, intrigue, and romance." —Booklist Fans of Agatha Christie won't want to miss this delightful new mystery set in the charming village of Edgemoor in Surrey, England, where you'll find the latest styles, the juiciest gossip—and the most tantalizing murder clues... No one would ever accuse famous opera star Dame Serena Levanté of lacking a flare for the dramatic. Unfortunately, it's curtains down on the dysfunctional diva when she's found dead at the bottom of a staircase in her elegant home. Solving an opera singer's murder may not be the typical hairdresser's aria of expertise. But Dame Serena was the mother of Daisy's best friend Floria, so Daisy must do-or-dye her best to get to the roots of the case. When a priceless Modigliani painting in the house is reported missing, the mystery gets even more tangled. Even though the gruff but handsome Detective Inspector Paul McGuinness tells the stylist to stay out of his hair, Daisy is determined to make sure the killer faces a stern makeover—behind bars. "A promising debut with scads of interesting characters, a spirited heroine, and a hint of romance." —Kirkus Reviews "Enjoyable...will appeal to readers of Elizabeth J. Duncan's 'Penny Brannigan' mysteries." —Library Journal "Death at a Country Mansion has more twists than a French braid." —Sherry Harris "If you enjoy British manor houses, a touch of budding romance, and a good mystery (like I do), I highly recommend Death at a Country Mansion." —Vikki Walton "A little romance, a little art history, and a gorgeous mansion . . . a page-turner that is fun and intriguing." —ACF Bookens

Angela Marchmont Mysteries: Books 1-3 Clara Benson,2016-12-07 This omnibus edition contains the first three books in the Angela Marchmont Mystery series Meet enigmatic lady detective Angela Marchmont in this series of light-hearted and charming 1920s mysteries! Includes: THE MURDER AT SISSINGHAM HALL (Book 1) On his return from South Africa, Charles Knox is invited to spend the weekend at the country home of Sir Neville Strickland, whose beautiful wife Rosamund was once Knox's fiancée. But in the dead of night Sir Neville is murdered. Who did it? As suspicion falls on each of the house guests in turn, Knox finds himself faced with deception and betrayal on all sides, and only the enigmatic Angela Marchmont seems to offer a solution to the mystery. This 1920s whodunit will delight all fans of traditional country house murder stories. THE MYSTERY AT UNDERWOOD HOUSE (Book 2) Old Philip Haynes was never happier than when his family were at each other's throats. Even after his death the terms of his will ensured they would keep on feuding. But now three people are dead and the accusations are flying. Can there really be a murderer in the family? Torn between friendship and duty, Angela Marchmont must find out the truth before the killer can strike again. THE TREASURE AT POLDARROW POINT (Book 3) When Angela Marchmont goes to Cornwall on doctor's orders she is looking forward to a nice rest and nothing more exciting than a little sea-bathing. But her plans for a quiet holiday are dashed when she is caught up in the hunt for a diamond necklace which, according to legend, has been hidden in the old smugglers' house at Poldarrow Point for over a century. Aided by the house's elderly owner, an irrepressible twelve-year-old, and a handsome Scotland Yard detective, Angela soon finds herself embroiled in the most perplexing of mysteries. Who is the author of the anonymous letters? Why is someone breaking into the house at night? And is it really true that a notorious jewel-thief is after the treasure too? Angela must use all her powers of deduction to solve the case and find the necklace—before someone else does.

The Mansion of Mystery Chester K. Steele,1911

The house of mystery Richard Marsh,1898

The Dower House Mystery Alanna Knight,2019-04-18 York, 1907. Newly retired Inspector Faro is delighted at the prospect of staying in the Dower House, situated on a Roman villa once home to Emperor Severus. But he arrives to find his wife Imogen distraught and desperately searching for her missing Irish cousin, who seems to have vanished without a trace . . .

The Dower House Mystery Patricia Wentworth,2016-06-06 A golden age mystery novel, first published in 1925.

A House of Ruin Pamela Crane,2022-02-22 A murder that stole 1982 national headlines: “Renowned Family Slayed in Home” A case that remained cold for forty long years. The Eyler family was anything but average. The father a top literary agent and the mother a duchess, they thrived in their prestigious mansion surrounded by luxury...and secrets. Secrets that would eventually cost them their lives. On a cold autumn night, their legacy ended with a grisly massacre in one of the most horrific scenes ever investigated. Soon details splashed across every newspaper of how the family of five lay slaughtered in their library, cursing the mansion as it became branded the Execution Estate. With no witnesses and no motives, the killer remained free. The case grew colder. Speculations grew darker. Answers grew dimmer. Until now. Former estate manager, Derl Newman, steps forward four decades later with a suspicion and a wild clue that could lead investigators to finally solve the puzzle of why a killer would murder a family yet leave the many priceless heirlooms behind. The gardener with a grudge? The bitter butler? The maid hiding her mischief? With insider knowledge of what happened that fateful night, Derl meets with renowned documentarian Keisha Fenty to expose everyone’s darkest secrets that brought this house...and everyone who entered it...to ruin. A humorous whodunnit short story perfect for fans of Clue-like locked-room mysteries. If Agatha Christie and Sherlock Holmes had a baby, they'd birth it in A House of Ruin! – reader review

The Tall House Mystery A. E. Fielding,2019-11-22 The Tall House Mystery, first published in the U.S. in 1933, is a classic British 'golden-age' murder mystery. The book, authored by A. E. Fielding (whose real identity remains somewhat of a mystery itself) features Scotland Yard's Chief Inspector Pointer, who is called in to investigate a murder in an old, once-elegant house, after a prank among friends takes a tragic turn.

The Red House Mystery Alan Alexander Milne,1922 Mark Ablett's stately mansion, the Red House, is filled with very proper guests when his most improper brother returns from Australia. The prodigal brother enters Mark's study, the parlor maid hears arguing and the brother dies...rather suddenly, with a bullet between his eyes. The study is locked from the inside and Mark is missing! Investigating the crime is wealthy Antony Gillingham, who rivals Sherlock Holmes in his remarkable powers of observation. He is aided by the perfect Watson, his friend Bill Beverley, a cheerful young man in white flannels.

The Lone House Mystery Edgar Wallace,2008-01-11 The dead man was rich and lived in a lonely house. Outside is the imprint of a bare foot. His secretary, with whom he was having an affair, is locked in a room. The key is in the dead man's pocket. Superintendent Minter considers it a queer and unsatisfactory case. This is a thrilling, intriguing tale of double murder and love.

The Unfinished House Margaret Sutton,1938 When the town is being rebuilt after a flood, swindlers try to take advantage of the residents. Judy and Peter help a defrauded woman get back at the con artists by designing and overseeing the building of a small house. Mysterious illnesses and strange noises provide more opportunities for investigation.

The House Opposite Elizabeth Kent,2013-09 This premium-quality volume includes the complete text of Elizabeth Kent's little-known vintage mystery tale in a freshly edited and newly typeset edition. With a generous 6x9 page size, this Summit Classic Press edition is printed on heavyweight bright white paper with a fully laminated cover featuring an original full color design. Prepared by human editors, this is NOT a machine-scanned or reproduction version. The House Opposite... Seeking relief from the scorching heat of the New York summer of 1899, Dr. Charles Fortescue climbed to the roof of his office building with a rug and his pipe, and spent the wee hours of the morning unexpectedly watching a series of strange events through the windows of the swanky Rosemere apartment house across the street. A woman's scream in the dark, a man half-carrying a fair-haired woman from a sitting-room, a man in another apartment crawling on hands and knees, a raven-haired woman sobbing in despair at another window, and a man slipping furtively from the building's back door and down the street. Summoned to examine a body discovered in the Rosemere House the next morning, Dr. Fortescue is surprised to find that the man has been dead for at least twenty-four hours. Fortescue and New York's Detective Merritt are drawn into an investigation with no shortage of prospective suspects, but a distinct lack of evidence to work with, starting with the fact that the identity of the victim is as mysterious as the identity of the killer. In this variation of the classic locked room puzzle, the question isn't how the murder could have been committed in the locked room, the question is how a dead body found its way into a locked and vacant apartment during the night ... and where it was hidden for the day between the victim's death and the discovery of the body. The answers to these questions will lead to the identity of the killer, and the rather unusual conclusion of this mystery.
