Cat's Call (Chronicles of Charlie Waterman Book 1) Duncan-Drake, Natasha, This gripped me from start to finish. The world created here is both believable and wonderfully fantastical. - Helen - Goodreads Charlie doesn't believe in destiny, unfortunately destiny believes in him. Accosted by a small clay, feline figurine, Charlie finds himself the chosen of the Cat Spirit, one of the Seven Great Spirits who protect the Balance of Existence. When he wakes up with a tail that will not go away no matter how he ignores it, he has to believe what is going on is real. At eighteen, Charlie isn't old, but he's two years past the threshold for dealing with magic for the first time, apparently. This makes him weird, even in Between, a realm of magic, prophecy and shapeshifting. He could live without the earthquakes, thanks. So now he has to: figure out magic; get along with five scarily competent sixteen year olds and one prickly vampire to form a team; and last but not least, be prepared to go to any world, in any universe when sent there by the Seer, so the Balance of Existence isn't destroyed by agents of chaos. All of which his mentor, Akari, assures him he did say yes to, even if he doesn't remember that part! Charlie has never thought of himself as a hero, but Existence depends on him coming to terms with the fact that he is.

Kitty is so amazed to find out that Sooty, a local cat, doesn't know what a birthday party is! So Kitty decides to throw Sooty a surprise birthday party to show how much fun they can be. Meanwhile, Kitty's cousin Max has come to visit. She is so excited to introduce Max to all her friends and wishes that she could introduce him to her cat friends, too. But Kitty knows if anyone discovers her magical talent, she'll lose her powers forever. It's going to be tough to keep Max and Sooty from discovering her secrets! With kittens, adventure, and magic, these adorable chapter books will leap into hearts.

The Cat's Meow Emily Carmichael, 2007-12-18 Sparks (and fur!) fly both in and out of the courtroom in this sparkling new novel, second in Emily Carmichael's Hearts of Gold trilogy... When workaholic attorney McKenna Wright returns home from the hospital following a car accident, she has the sinking feeling that her road to recovery is going to be a long one. Her memory has more holes than a piece of swiss cheese; she can barely recall her own name, let alone the details of the big case she's been trying in court. And then there's the fact that her beloved cat, Nefertiti, has suddenly learned how to talk. Or is it that McKenna has suddenly learned how to listen? Not that she wants to hear what Titi is trying to tell her, because it just might turn her world even further upside down. Such as the fact that the music star she's been defending isn't all that innocent. And worse, that the hunky prosecutor McKenna condemned on sight is guilty of nothing more than his criminal good looks. But after losing her job and her house, and making no progress at finding her memory, McKenna needs all the help she can get to rebuild her life. She's determined to reclaim her fiercely independent former self, even if it means taking advice from her talking cat, listening to her bossy friends, or--worst of all--leaning just a little on the man she used to snub. Once her memory returns, she'll finally be able to put chatty felines and a certain entirely-too-handsome lawyer behind her so her life can return to normal. After all, normal is exactly what McKenna wants...isn't it? From the Paperback edition.
