Want to do that while still keeping it wholesome for your kids? Now, how about we insert a fun challenge that will keep the kids engaged? Playing a little trivia game is a fresh way to introduce interesting new topics and ideas to your family. From far-out facts about outer space to mouthwatering tidbits about food and drinks, fun facts inject laughter and wonder to your family discussions. Not only that, you'll get to see just how much your kids have learned so far. Learning interesting facts about a variety of different subjects arouses interest, fosters critical thinking skills, and excites kids with the feeling of wonder and discovery. The question-and-answer format also allows for a reciprocal interaction that builds connections and interpersonal relationships. And you don't have to tire yourself out trying to find some interesting facts. You'll find a comprehensive compilation right here. In The Trivia Challenge, you will discover: 300 unique questions that challenge and entertain, while expanding your child's vocabulary at the same time A surefire way of capturing your child's attention, even if they're easily distracted Intriguing facts about a diverse range of topics that will spark your kid's curiosity about the world around them An engaging activity and a rich source of conversation starters, so family time is spent bonding and interacting, instead of staring at phones Detailed illustrations that provide entertaining breaks within the pages, and maybe even some clues A creative way to teach your kids deductive reasoning through a multiple-choice format How to get your kid interested in science, geography, history, and more, without feeling like they're in school And much more. When your kids get some answers wrong, that only means they're learning something new and adding to their trove of knowledge. Even when they already know the answer and get it right, they can still gain more in-depth information through the additional facts in the answer key. Give your children the gift of general knowledge, and watch with delight at where it takes them. If you want to nourish your child's inquisitive mind with a fun activity for the whole family, then scroll up and click the Add to Cart button right now.

Two Truths and a Tall Tale ,2017-01-01 Which Two Facts Are True? It's Up to You! Looking for something to get your family unplugged from their devices and engaged in some lively discussion? Indulge their love of trivia and fun facts with this unique game book of fact versus fiction. Spend hours straining your brain as you determine which of three statements is nothing but a tall tale: You can polish copper with ketchup. The man who invented the bulletproof vest never shot a gun. A group of owls is called a parliament. Only two of these statements are true. It's up to you and your family and friends to figure out which ones. Read all three out loud and then use your collective smarts to figure out which one is false. And don't trust the hilarious cartoons—some of them just might lead you astray! Warning—you might discover that truth really is stranger than fiction. The bulletproof vest was actually invented by a woman. Gotcha!
