Who Owns the World's Media? Eli M. Noam, 2016 This publication moves beyond the rhetoric of free media and free markets to provide a dispassionate and data-driven analysis of global media ownership trends and their drivers. Based on an extensive data collection effort from scholars around the world, it covers 13 media industries, including television, newspapers, book publishing, film, search engines, ISPs, and wireless telecommunication, across a 10-25 year period in 30 countries.

Grupo Prisa Luis A. Albornoz, Ana I. Segovia, Núria Almiron, 2020-04-13 In one of the first English-language studies of Grupo Prisa, this book delivers a comprehensive and concise approach to the political, economic and social-cultural profile of one of the leading cross-media conglomerates in Europe, tracing its development from a single newspaper publisher in 1972. Prisa is now the world's leading Spanish and Portuguese-language media group in the creation and distribution of content in the fields of culture, education, and information, producing content for more than twenty countries with global brands like El País (newspaper), Los 40 (radio), or Santillana (education). Using a critical political economy approach, the authors track Prisa's journey to becoming a cross-media conglomerate, and examine how it mirrors the recent history of the economic and political developments in Spain. This concise and highly contemporary volume is ideal for students, scholars and researchers looking to further their understanding of a growing Spanish-language media power, or more generally interested in international communication and media industries.

Radio's Second Century John Allen Hendricks, 2020-03-13 Winner of the 2022 Broadcast Education Association Book Award One of the first books to examine the status of broadcasting on its one hundredth anniversary, Radio's Second Century investigates both vanguard and perennial topics relevant to radio's past, present, and future. As the radio industry enters its second century of existence, it continues to be a dominant mass medium with almost total listenership saturation despite rapid technological advancements that provide alternatives for consumers. Lasting influences such as on-air personalities, audience behavior, fan relationships, and localism are analyzed as well as contemporary issues including social and digital media. Other essays examine the regulatory concerns that continue to exist for public radio, commercial radio, and community radio, and discuss the hindrances and challenges posed by government regulation with an emphasis on both American and international perspectives. Radio's impact on cultural hegemony through creative programming content in the areas of religion, ethnic inclusivity, and gender parity is also explored. Taken together, this volume compromises a meaningful insight into the broadcast industry's continuing power to inform and entertain listeners around the world via its oldest mass medium--radio.

Las radios universitarias, más allá de la radio Cinta Espino Narváez, Daniel Martín Pena, 2012 Las radios universitarias son una realidad en España desde finales de la década de los 80, cuando surge la primera emisora en la

Universidad de La Laguna, Radio Campus. Desde esa fecha, y tras un desarrollo lento y pausado, han ido creciendo de forma acelerada en los últimos años al amparo de la evolución constante de las Tecnologías de la Información y la Comunicación, que han venido a apoyar y a hacer más fácil la vida diaria de estas estaciones radiofónicas universitarias. Se repasa el uso de las posibilidades de la Web Social 2.0, el desarrollo de las aplicaciones para Smartphones, las posibilidades interactivas que brindan en la actualidad las redes sociales o el software libre. História dos Média na Europa José Manuel Nobre-Correia, 2021-11-01 «O conhecimento das grandes tendências que marcaram a história dos média europeus e a história particular destes mesmos média em cada país europeu (sobretudo daqueles de que somos geográfica e culturalmente mais próximos) é absolutamente indispensável. Só assim poderemos compreender por que é que ainda hoje, quase seis séculos depois da ?descoberta? da prensa tipográfica, a paisagem imprensa europeia é tão contrastada, de uma região para outra do continente. E como é que, ao longo do século XX, a rádio e a televisão, as estruturas dos seus emissores como dos seus conteúdos, evoluíram também de maneira tão plurifacetada.»

Competition Law Analysis of Price and Non-price Discrimination & Abusive IP Based Legal Proceedings Pierre Kobel,Pranvera Këllezi,Bruce Kilpatrick,2021-03-29 This book gathers national and international reports from around the globe on key issues in the field of antitrust and intellectual property. Its first part discusses to what extent competition law should be concerned with differences in prices, terms and conditions, or quality that suppliers offer different purchasers. A detailed international report explores the major trends and challenges in this field and provides an excellent comparative study on this complex and challenging subject. In turn, the second part examines whether there should be legal restrictions on the ability of persons who claim, without sufficient justification, to hold IP rights that have been infringed on, to bring, or to threaten to bring, legal proceedings based on such claims against their competitors or others. In this regard, the book brings together the current legal responses across a number of European countries and elsewhere in the world, all summarised and elaborated on in an international report. The book also includes the resolutions passed by the General Assembly of the International League of Competition Law (LIDC) following debates on each of these topics, which include proposed solutions and recommendations. The LIDC is a long-standing international association that focuses on the interface between competition law and intellectual property law, including unfair competition issues.
